ACTION THREAT ON CAMPAIGN POSTERS

CAMPAIGNERS have been reassured they will not be punished for putting up posters supporting Cannock and Stafford Hospitals – after one group was threatened with prosecution.

Cannock Chase Council sent an email to the Support Stafford Hospital campaign group warning it to remove 'unauthorised' posters publicising a candle-lit vigil.

The council has now apologised for the email, which it said was sent by a member of staff who "overstepped the mark". The author will 'be spoken to', the council stressed.

The authority added it has "absolutely no intention" of prosecuting campaigners and is now looking to work with campaign organisers to manage future promotions.

Stafford Borough Council gave assurances in April that blue ribbons would be allowed to remain tied to trees ahead of a march attended by 50,000 people.

Astonishing

Chase MP Aidan Burley said Cannock Chase Council should have been quicker to follow suit. He added: "Obviously I welcome the fact that the council no longer intends to prosecute campaigners, but I still want to know why this happened.

"It is astonishing that a council which publicly supports Stafford Hospital would ever privately threaten to prosecute local campaigners just for putting up posters advertising a night vigil to save A&E."

The email was sent four days after last month's Night of Light event, attended by more than 1,000 people fighting to retain hospital services.

It warned that the posters were unauthorised under the Town and Country (Control of Advertisements) Regulations 2007.

It continued: "The council does actively prosecute people or businesses in breach of the regulation and your co-operation in respect of this matter would be appreciated.

"Please do not breach the regulations in future."

In response, campaign group volunteers took down all their ribbons and posters.

Campaign leader Cheryl Porter said: "We didn't want to cause a problem or be prosecuted.

"We've had people coming into the campaign shop asking why they've gone, because they liked seeing them up. It's quite sad really.

"We were disappointed to receive the email because it puts a bad light on the campaign. It's not nice wording and we know that Stafford Borough Council are all behind the campaign.

"You just felt, why aren't Cannock doing the same? We are all in this together."

Cannock Chase Council leader Councillor George Adamson has given added assurances the mistake will not be repeated.

He said: "Cannock Chase District Council fully supports the campaign to keep both Cannock and Stafford hospital open.

"We won't be taking any action against the organisation now or in the future.

"The situation is in hand and it won't happen again."

Hospital petition is signed by 9,000

NINE thousand signatures have been gathered by supporters trying to save services at Cannock Hospital.

It follows health watchdog Monitor's recommendations that services should be withdrawn from Cannock and Stafford hospitals through a £70 million downgrade.

Up to 9,000 residents and medical professionals have signed a petition urging the trust's administrators, Alan Bloom and Hugo Mascie-Taylor, to ensure services are retained at the Brunswick Road site.

Campaign

A draft plan outlining the future of Mid Staffordshire NHS Trust is to be released by the administrators on June 19, before being put out to public consultation on June 25.

Cannock Chase Council leader George Adamson was involved in the campaign for a hospital in Cannock around 25 years ago and praised the efforts of local people.

"Stafford Hospital has always overshadowed Cannock but it is just as important to us.

"There are a lot of people who spent most of their lives campaigning for us to get a hospital in Cannock – and we're not going to lose it now.

"We want Cannock Hospital to stay in the NHS and provide a service to local people."

Jungle fever rocks Charter Fair

by Will Ackermann

Kayleigh Palmer, of Rugeley, and her six year old son Finley, soak up the sun at town's annual Charter Fair

KAYLEIGH Palmer and her six-year-old son Finley were among those enjoying all the fun of the fair in Rugeley last week.

The town's annual Charter Fair attracted thousands of people to Hagley Park, who basked in the sunshine to enjoy a host of activities.

Kayleigh, a 27-year-old mother-of-two, of Wolseley Road, said: "It was good, there was lots going on. We took part in the parade earlier on in the day."

The event had a jungle fever theme and the star of the show was a 7ft dancing robot called Titan.

A parade of decorated floats headed to the field from Power Station Road. Main arena attractions included ferret racing, Zumba classes and a trapeze act, as well as an air display, safari, clowns, crazy golf, quad bikes, football shoot-out and charity stalls. Councillor Geoff Martin, chairman of the Charter Fair committee, said: "It was a wonderful day. All our people worked very, very hard and everything went quite smoothly.

"Everyone put 150 per cent in and it was great. It is very important, the Rugeley Charter Fair. It goes back a good many years.

Parents' grief as grave is targeted

THE grieving parents of a premature baby say they are appalled after thieves targeted their daughter's grave in Hednesford.

Ian Astbury and Karla Bellion, both aged 40, lost their daughter Kaila after just 12 days.

She had been born prematurely and died at New Cross Hospital's Neo-Natal unit in January. Now the couple say her grave at St Peter's Church has been targeted by thieves who have stolen a solar powered angel.

Mr Astbury, a bus driver, said: "The angel light was stolen first and then when we visited again we noticed things had been moved and teddy bears and wooden windmills started to appear.

Scared

"We asked family and friends thinking they had done it but they hadn't. It is like somebody is playing a game but it really isn't funny.

"We used to visit the grave every day but now Karla is scared to go. I just want it to stop so Karla and I can visit our daughter's grave in peace."

Mr Astbury has reported the incident to Staffordshire Police who said: "This has undoubtedly caused a great deal of upset for the family and we have spoken to the vicar at the church who will make ground workers aware.

Boss Smith in new deal

PROMOTION-winning Hednesford Town boss Rob Smith has signed a new contract at Keys Park.

Smith has put pen to paper on a two-year deal, keeping him with the club until 2015.

He took the Pitmen back into Conference North for the first time since 2006. His side also won two trophies – the Staffordshire and Birmingham Senior Cups.

Plaque tells of mining history

AN information plaque has been created looking at the history of Brereton Collieries.

Ken Edwards of the Cannock Chase Mining Historical Society unveiled the board at the old Brereton Colliery site on Colliery Road.

The plaque offers a unique history of the pits which were open from 1792 until 1960.

The sign, which was designed and commissioned by the society, is the fifth to have been put up at sites across the district, including Brereton & Ravenhill Park colliery and Lea Hall Collier.

Mr Edwards said: "It is important that we remember the history of mining because it played an important part in this area.

"The board tells you what happened at the colliery and gives a brief history of the site with photographs and information.

"It has been placed here in Brereton in memory of the men and boys who worked there over the years.

"We are all pleased the sign has now been placed at the site."

The society hopes to put up boards at the sites of former collieries around Cannock Chase in the future.

Libraries to scrap DVDs hire in cost-cutting bid

LIBRARIES across Staffordshire will no longer stock CDs and DVDs in a bid to save thousands of pounds.

Bosses at Staffordshire County Council are cancelling the contract with its multimedia supplier.

CDs and DVDs will be phased out from the end of September. The decision comes after the county council carried out its annual review of fees and charges.

Lending fees have been frozen but room hire costs will increase slightly from this month.

In a report outlining the changes, Councillor Mike Lawrence said: "CDs and DVDs are not as popular as they once were and following a reduction in customer demand they are now costing us more to provide than the income we receive from their hire.

Request

"The contract for CDs and DVDs will not be renewed with the supplier at the end of September. Existing CD and DVD stock will be reduced over a period of time and phased out when the service is no longer viable."

Overdue, request charges and the hire of charged stock will remain the same.

It is hoped phasing out the service will contribute towards the council's plan to save around £100,000 from the library service over the next two years.

Charges for book groups to borrow eight copies of a novel or more will go up from £1 to £2. Hire charges for 'well used' meeting rooms will also increase by up to £5. Charges for large meeting rooms will go up to £25 from £20 for four hours.

Libraries will also start stocking toys for children to borrow. The toy library was a successful pilot scheme at Cannock Library.

Users will pay 60p per toy for a three-week loan.

Parcel firm nominated by experts for awards

DELIVERY firm APC Overnight has been nominated for two top industry awards.

The UK's largest independent parcel network, set to move into a new £16.5million centre at Kingswood Lakeside in Cannock this summer, has been shortlisted by a panel of experts for both the Innovation and Network of the Year categories at the Motor Transport Awards, the UK's biggest awards ceremony for the road transport industry.

APC Overnight chief executive Syed Ziaullah. "We have a firm commitment to offering fast and efficient on-time delivery, with a friendly, local service.

Benefit

"All of our depots are independently run businesses and I believe customers can see the benefit of working with a local company and the commitment to customer service when they use APC Overnight."

"Being recognised by industry insiders is a fantastic endorsement and it's great that these two awards represent two very different sides of our business.

"We constantly look to be ahead of the competition by investing in our business," he added.

Customers dig deep for Tommy

Tommy Brown, with, from left, his mother Julie Tuckley, aged 37, sister Demi Sheppard, 18 and Tanya Greenfield, 52, owner of the Copper Kettle cafe, Market Hall Street

THE owner of a Cannock tea shop has thanked members of the public for their generous donations to charity.

Staff and customers at the Copper Kettle on Market Hall Street have donated more than £250 to the Tommy Brown fund.

The 19-month-old youngster from Walsall contracted meningococcal septicaemia aged five months and doctors were forced to amputate both his lower legs, his right hand and some of the fingers on his left hand.

Cafe owner Tanya Greenfield decided she wanted to do something to help earlier this year and began collecting for the fund. Tanya, aged 52, said: "Together, both staff and customers have managed to raise a fantastic amount, which just goes to show how generous people are in Cannock.

"Every day new people would come into the shop and give money without even thinking twice.

"We didn't expect to raise this much and are all so pleased with our efforts.

"This is definitely something I will be doing at the Copper Kettle again," she added.

Cattle to help with restoring heathland

A CONSERVATION charity is getting some special four-legged help to restore a rare habitat on Cannock Chase.

The Connecting Cannock Chase partnership will be introducing hardy cattle to graze two areas of Forestry Commission land, totalling 24 hectares, to help restore lowland heathland.

The Hereford and Devon cattle will feed on invasive plants, encouraging heather to flourish. Work to install fencing to contain the grazing animals will begin this month, with walkers able to access the area through a series of kissing gates and bridlegates.

The Connecting Cannock Chase Partnership is a partnership between Staffordshire Wildlife Trust, the Forestry Commission, Natural England, the county council, Cannock Chase AONB, Butterfly Conservation, and RSPB, with funding from SITA Trust's Enriching Nature Programme, through the Landfill Communities Fund and additional funds from partner organisations.

To find out more about the project, a free guided walk is being held on Tuesday, June 11 at 2pm. A hands-on volunteer work party is also being held on the Chase on Saturday, June 8 at 10am.

The Dilshad, in Cannock Road, Chadsmoor, is hosting the event on Monday, June 17. The restaurant reopened at the end of last year following a £50,000 refurbishment, doubling in size.

The 11-year-old is a patron at Birmingham Children's Hospital where he received life-saving surgery to relieve a build-up of pressure on his brain as a toddler.

The event starts at 7.30pm and will be compered by local entertainer David St John. A raffle will be held with all money raised going to the hospital.

Mr Uddin said: "Birmingham Children's Hospital is such a worthy cause and we will be honoured to have Ben and his family attend

Fundraising horseman strides into college

William Reddaway and his horse Strider at Rodbaston Campus

SOUTH Staffordshire College played its part in raising money for two UK charities by welcoming a special visitor to its Equine Centre on Rodbaston Campus.

William Reddaway and his horse Strider enjoyed the college's hospitality during the charity Ride Round England to raise money for the Family Holiday Association and Wormwood Scrubs Pony Centre.

William and Strider set off from the Cotswolds at the beginning of May and aim to ride to the four corners of England, raising more than £250,000, visiting 30 Cathedral cities on their way. He is seeking help along the way from organisations willing to offer overnight accommodation for him and his horse to keep overheads to a minimum.

William said: "I am very grateful to South Staffordshire College for providing accommodation for me and stabling for Strider - their generosity means we can raise more money for our chosen charities to help disadvantaged and disabled children."

Sally Johnson, Equine Centre manager, co-ordinated the overnight accommodation and hosted William during his brief stop-over. She said: "I really admire William's determination and Strider seems to be taking it all in his stride, we were only too pleased to help and are following their progress on Facebook with great interest. We really hope they complete this epic journey and raise the £250,000 target."

William will return to Rodbaston once the journey has ended journey to talk to students and answer questions about their adventure.

Titan's the star as annual show draws in the crowds

THOUSANDS basked in the warm weather to enjoy a bit of jungle fever at the annual Rugeley Charter Fair.

Families soaked up the sun along with a range of activities and attractions. More than 8,000 people young and old joined in with the festivities on Saturday afternoon.

The town was transformed into a sea of colour, music and entertainment for the annual event, which was given a Jungle Fever theme.

It is one of the highlights of the calender in Rugeley and organisers are already thinking ahead to next year.

A parade of decorated floats began proceedings as they headed into Hagley Park Playing Fields.

The route began at Power Station Road, with the procession going on to Station Road, Anson Street, Elmore Lane, Sheepfair, Church Street, Wolseley Road, Market Street, St Paul's Road and Horse Fair, before going onto the park.

Safari

Star of the show was Titan The Robot, a 7ft tall machine, which can sing and dance, and there was ferret racing, Zumba classes and a trapeze act. Families were also treated to an air display, safari, clowns, crazy golf, quad bikes, football shoot-out and a selection of market and charity stalls.

Chairman of the Charter Fair committee, Councillor Geoff Martin, said: "It was a wonderful day, the weather was beautiful for us and I think everyone enjoyed it. There were children there and grown-ups, a real mix. It was great to see all the smiling faces.

"It is very important, the Rugeley Charter Fair. It goes back a good many years.

"All our people worked very, very hard and everything went quite smoothly. It was great."

Among those to enjoy the day were Kayleigh and six-year-old Finley of Wolseley Road, Rugeley, who painted their faces to fit the theme.

The 27-year-old mother of two said: "It was good, there was lots going on. We took part in the parade earlier on in the day."

IT'S hard to define that old expression about somebody's face being a picture. But on Springwatch (BBC2), as Chris Packham described the curious mating habits of slugs, which sometimes involve biting off their own sex organs, Michaela Strachan's face, frozen somewhere between horror and hysteria, was an absolute picture.

I REFERRED recently to the horrors of camping. A reader recalls camping with an old chap who coped with the problem of an over-active bladder by means of a plastic funnel attached to a length of rubber tubing outside the tent. His pals tied a knot in the end of it, which apparently caused much cursing in what are sometimes called the wee small hours.

I SUGGESTED recently that the BBC should be funded from taxation instead of extracting its money by means of a vicious, clapped-out licence system. A reader asks: "What about people who don't watch the BBC?" Simple. Under my scheme, people who claim not to watch the BBC and therefore qualify for a tax break are invited to fill out the exemption form Gov23/3343/43/55444/Eng/Wales (2011-2014), omitting section 642 (vvi) (b) and subsections ii,iii,iv,xxi and xxxiv, plus the first 27 amendments in schedule XXV (excluding all sub-sections following the appeals procedure for Welsh-speaking Somalis). This exemption form, available on the first Friday after Michaelmas at your nearest harbour office, has to be completed in green ink and must be submitted no later than yesterday.

THE Highland landscape cries out for a Barbour, green wellies and sturdy tartan socks. Yet in a dazzling photograph to mark the 60th anniversary of her coronation, Her Majesty poses in the tussocky turf of the Balmoral Estate wearing full formal dress including the sovereign's green velvet mantle and the Vladimir Tiara. The loyal monarchist within me rejoices at such a fine image. But I am ever so slightly reminded of those pictures of elderly ladies in nightdresses, striding among startled shoppers in the high street, to highlight the perils of dementia. The time to worry will be when HM opens Parliament in her wellies.

"CRIME runs in families in the same way that being a doctor, teacher or lawyer does." So says Alan Goldsack QC, calling for babies of criminal families to be removed to better homes to save them from a life of crime. It would be a fascinating social experiment. But what if the kids, transplanted to decent, respectable homes, still drifted into crime? We might then have to accept that it's nature, not nurture, and that criminality is passed down families like blue eyes or ginger hair. I once interviewed an old copper who genuinely believed crime was in the genes.

The company is now situated in Bermar House on Rumer Hill Road, directly above its former office.

Director Allen Willey said: "We are thrilled with our new office space which will allow us to develop more services for local people. We are particularly excited about the activities we have planned for people with learning disabilities."

More than 30 people attended the official opening to find out more information about the team, the care they provide and potential job opportunities.

Developed

Long-standing customer, Bob Key, aged 96, declared the new office open alongside care manager Emma Richards.

The company will now be able to offer more developed services and help even more local people, as well as bringing more job opportunities to the area.

Bob Key, aged 96, and care manager Emma Richards, cut the ribbon to mark the official opening of Bluebird Care in Cannock

Berni's in demand with grave-tending business

A RETIRED Burntwood woman who set up a bespoke grave tending business has said more and more people are requesting her services.

Berni Wilkins, aged 61, launched B's Forget-me-not Grave Tending Services earlier this year after moving away from loved ones who had died.

by Charlotte Lilley

She was rarely able to visit their graves and when she did she was struck by how neglected they had become.

After failing to find anyone to maintain them on her behalf, she decided to set up her own business.

Maintained

Berni said: "After speaking with friends, it became apparent I was not alone in this and, like many others, tried without success to find an individual or organisation that would make regular visits on my behalf to ensure these special places were tended and maintained."

Berni, a member of Burntwood & District Royal British Legion and the riders branch, added: "I always dreamed of setting up the business to cater for the needs of those who, for whatever reason, are unable to look after their loved ones graves themselves.

"Some people find it too difficult after a bereavement to visit the churchyard and other people may live far away like myself, so, on my retirement I set about achieving my ambition.

"It is going really well and business is picking up with more and more people asking me to clear litter, remove moss and algae, empty and clean flower holders and plant bulbs and shrubs.

"It is an absolute privilege to be able to do this for people and make life that little bit easier for them."

Buy local is the call on saving our shops

RESIDENTS across Cannock are being urged to buy local as part of a campaign to save the high street.

The Best of Cannock, a company which champions independent businesses, is supporting Buy Local Week which runs until Sunday (June 9).

The core element of the campaign is to make a difference to the local economy by getting people to do more for their area, either by displaying a sticker in a window or changing the way they spend their money.

Steve Mallows, from thebestofcannock, said: "We have distinctive and wonderful independent shops and businesses, but we shouldn't take them for granted.

Active

"We need to learn from other areas that have bucked the trend of empty shops and declining parades.

"With everyone committed to supporting local businesses, combined with a loyal and active community, we can do the same."

Anyone who visits www.thebestofcannock.co.uk to join the campaign will be entered into the daily draw for the chance to win £100 to spend at a thebestof local business.

Business owners wishing to display a Buy Local window sticker or to get more involved, should call 01543 579426.

Store raises cash towards heart screening

Peter Teale and Waitrose employee Richard Davis with a cheque for £582 for CRY

MORE than £500 has been raised in memory of a fitness instructor from Cheslyn Hay.

Staff and customers at the Waitrose Store in Lichfield collected £582 for CRY (Cardiac Risk In The Young) in memory of Zoe Teale who died in her sleep from an undetected heart condition in 2009.

The former Great Wyrley High School pupil was a top swimmer, having competed for Bilston Swimming Club and Birmingham University.

Her parents, Peter and Julie, have now dedicated themselves to raising awareness and money for CRY and organising heart screening sessions for young people up to the age of 35.

Screened

Mr Teale said: "People don't know they have a heart defect until it is too late so that is why it is important they get themselves screened.

"The money will go a long way towards organising a heart screening event, which can pick up any defects right away.

"I would definitely encourage people to get themselves checked to stop their families going through what we have."

Mr Teale and his wife Julie have helped screen more than 1,000 young people since their daughter died.

Four in dock as teenage girl filmed performing sex acts

A 15-YEAR-OLD girl was filmed taking part in sex acts by two teenagers at a flat, a jury at Stafford crown court was told.

by Marion Brennan

Michael Howden used his mobile phone to video himself and co-accused Oliver Wright with the girl.

Two others, Alex Bailey and the flat's tenant Ashley Parker, were also involved in sex acts with her.

The teenager had been invited to Parker's flat, where she and the four males drank alcohol and took drugs, probably Mcat, the court heard.

Mr Justin Jarmola, prosecuting, said the offences, on Boxing Day in 2011, only came to light when the girl told her mother what had happened.

Police found three videos on Howden's mobile phone lasting a total of more than 40 minutes.

Parker, now aged 27, of Queen Street, Burntwood, was jailed for two years after admitting two charges of sexual activity with a child.

Curfew

Judge John Wait told him: "At your age you should have been protective of a 15-year-old." Parker was also banned for life from working with children.

Wright, now aged 18, formerly of Highfields Road, Chasetown, now of Park Road, Hammerwich, was given a three-year community order and a four-month curfew with £250 costs. He admitted two charges of sexual activity with a child.

Bailey, now 18, of Two Oaks Avenue, Burntwood, admitted one charge of sexual activity with a child and was given a three-year youth rehabilitation order and four-month curfew with £500 costs. Howden, now 18, of Chase Road, Burntwood, admitted three offences of sexual activity with the girl and taking indecent photos of a child.

He was given a three-year youth rehabilitation order with a six-month curfew and £250 costs.

The judge said: "It was you Howden who took the film, which would substantially exacerbate the distress of this girl, who has come to know of the recording and will live in fear of its distribution."

Miss Sarah Buckingham, for Howden, told the judge: "When they read about this case in the local press, it will shock the local community but young people do engage in sexual activity at a much younger age."

She said Howden was only 16 at the time and was a member of the air cadet force.

Miss Laura Hobson, for Wright, said he was upset when he shown the videos and was deeply ashamed.

Miss Lynette McClement, for Parker, said he was not caught on camera with the girl.

Mr Tim Pole, for Bailey, an apprentice electrician, said: "This was out of character and is not going to be repeated."

The mother of the victim welcomed the sentences but said the case had blighted her daughter's life.

She said: "She's in counselling and recovering well but she has flashbacks and wakes up screaming."

Wheel love for bike-riding newlyweds

Newlyweds Ian Smith and Linda Riddet-Smith are cycling together 250 miles from Lichfield to Dumfries

NEWLYWEDS often embark on an exotic honeymoon but one Brownhills couple hopped on their bikes after getting hitched and started peddling on a 250-mile charity cycle ride.

Ian Smith and Linda Riddet-Smith were married at Erasmus Darwin House in Lichfield and then started five days of pedal pushing to Dumfries in Scotland.

The couple are aiming to raise £2,000 for children's charity Unicef and requested donations instead of presents for their nuptials. Mr Smith, aged 41, and the newly-named Mrs Riddet-Smith, 29, met seven years ago in Manchester.

Sun

In Dumfries the couple will receive a blessing from the bride's family, who live in the town.

Mr Smith said: "We wanted to do something a bit different. We could have done the normal thing and had five days in the sun but we thought we would do something useful and raise money for a great charity."

Mrs Riddet-Smith, who is a maths teacher at Rugeley Academy, said: "We are not completely conventional. We got married in a museum and then decided to cycle for our honeymoon."

The couple can be sponsored at the fundraising website www.justgiving.com/teams/teamsmithriddet

IN MY VIEW WITH MARK ANDREWS

SO, after the coldest spring in 51 years, the sunshine has finally put in an appearance.

And where better to spend a sunny Saturday than with a trip to the public refuse tip?

For somewhere you go to dump your rubbish, the tip is a surprisingly image-conscious environment, and one of the last bastions of unadulterated, old-fashioned machismo.

First of all, there has been a raging debate about what one actually calls such attractions.

The moment you roll up at one of these places, there is an acute sensation that everybody is running the rule over you: what you are wearing, what you are driving, and what it is that you have brought to the party. Here, the seasoned pros can spot the bank-holiday DIY-er from a thousand paces.

It helps, of course, if you have the right wheels.

A huge black pick-up truck, preferably with gleaming chrome and garish go-faster stripes is just the job. But if you don't have such a vehicle to hand, and haven't yet bought sufficiently into the Civic Amenities lifestyle to justify the purchase, there are other ways of pulling off the right look.

An A-Team style van is probably trying a touch too hard, but any big 4x4 is good, ideally coated with a liberal spraying of mud.

Rugged

Think well-used Mitsubishi Shogun, Land Rover Discovery and you won't go far wrong, or maybe a large Lexus or BMW X5 if you want to create an air of rugged affluence. But turn up in a Barbie-pink Suzuki and you're just asking to be laughed at.

And, from personal experience, lifting your rubbish from the back seat of a soft-top will result in stares of withering contempt.

It goes without saying that a high visibility vest is de rigueur if you're to blend in, but don't ever wear a shirt underneath it – it will only hide your tan.

Okay, a T-shirt is just about acceptable in winter, but only when it falls below freezing.

And while most waste reception sites do not actually allow builders to dump their commercial waste, a hard hat will boost your cred no end.

And how will you know if you've got it right?

Well there is one simple test. If a member of staff approaches you to check whether you know where to dump your mattress, you've still got plenty to learn.

Auctioneer Dave Eglington with one of the items

What will you bid for ex-Corrie girls?

Celebrity Antiques Road Show comes to Penkridge and MARION BRENNAN finds out the fun to the had

TWO queens of the cobbles were reunited for a spot of TV treasure-hunting – and turned a sober auction room into a riotous comedy set when they took over the selling.

Former Coronation Street stars Thelma Barlow, who played mousy Mavis Riley, and Anne Reid, who was Ken Barlow's first wife Val, were in Penkridge for an episode of Celebrity Antiques Road Trip.

The pair had already bought their bargain pieces and was at Cuttlestone's in Pinfold Lane to see them auctioned.

Not best pleased at seeing their prize purchases going for a song, the women were up on their sensible flatties in a flash and giving it some patter.

"Right, we're taking over," said 78-year-old Anne, as the twosome managed to push up the bids with their persuasive banter.

Throng

Thelma, 83, attempted to play a late 19th century accordion as Anne warbled a couple of lines from Scarborough Fair.

Soon they were on their feet again to sell a Georgian tea set.

"Now this is very Downtown Abbey," enthused Anne. "Lady Mary would have had one in her boudoir. Tea, Thelma?"

The 200-strong throng loved the series of impromptu sketches, responding with more generous offers to the delight of the actresses.

The pair are great friends since appearing together in Victoria Wood's comedy series Dinnerladies.

Although both ex-Corrie, they never appeared in the soap together, Anne leaving in 1971 six months before Thelma arrived for her 26-year stint.

Celebrity Antiques Road Trip presenters David Harper and Paul Laidlaw with Thelma Barlow and Anne Reid

Neither watches the programme anymore. "Too busy in the garden or seeing my friends," said Dorset-based Thelma, who has written a book about organic gardening.

Anne, too, rarely stops still long enough to switch on the set.

She did a five-night cabaret residency in London just two weeks ago and is looking forward to the start of filming this month for a second series of BBC1's Last Tango In Halifax, the story of two septuagenarians who rekindle a teenage romance, which was an instant hit with viewers last November. She says: "That was wonderful to do. I get pig-sick of being sent scripts about old people who are either dying or in an old people's home.

"I throw them across the room. That's certainly not who I am. It's like you get to 70 and you suddenly become a different person. It's absolutely ridiculous; it makes me so flipping mad."

Grandmother-of-two Thelma, who has been happily single for 24 years since her divorce, agrees. "And I hate it when people get all apologetic about mentioning your age. There's nothing to be embarrassed about, I have no problems with it and it maddens me when people adopt that attitude."

Champagne

Both women look effortlessly chic and amazingly well preserved, Anne wearing a dark grey wool dress under a coffee-coloured coat with Thelma in cream linen trousers and a black fitted jacket. Both re-apply lippie and gloss between breaks in filming.

Anne, who was widowed after just 10 years of marriage and has a son Mark, also moved south and now lives in London.

She celebrated her birthday the day before with the crew. A bottle of champagne was put on ice until filming ended on Wednesday last week.

"We've had a fascinating time, I wish I could have stayed longer," said Thelma.

"I wanted to bid for some of the stuff myself but we weren't allowed."

The friends prepare to hear the results of their bargain-hunting. "I must remember not to swear," says Anne.

They depart, as they arrived, laughing like a couple of schoolgirls in a silver vintage Mercedes with Anne at the wheel.

It could have been a re-make of the 1991 road movie Thelma and Louise. "Yes," says Anne, before hitting the accelerator. "It's felt a lot like that."

THROUGH THE YEARS

1983...

A WOLVERHAMPTON schoolboy was celebrating after being called up to play chess for England. Ten-year-old Dean Whitehouse, a member of Bushbury Chess Club, was one of 40 children picked to represent his country in a challenge match against Scotland.

THE Black Country became a tourist trap as coach loads of visitors took a close look at the history of the area. For a £65 fee tourists from all over the UK spent a weekend enjoying a series of excursions aimed at promoting the region's heritage.

PASSENGERS were taken back in time on an historic bus journey between Dudley and Stafford. The 1969 Daimler Fleetline travelled a long-discontinued route through Tipton, Walsall and Cannock, stopping at all of the original bus stops along the way.

1993...

A KINGSWINFORD bakery cooked up a gigantic bloomer to mark National Bread Week. The Wheatmill Bakery, in Lapwood Avenue, invited customers to guess the weight of the lavish loaf to raise money for charity.

TWO golfers from Cannock were recovering in hospital after being struck by lightning as they sheltered from storms. Don Spring was hurled through the air and Stephen Lloyd temporarily paralysed during the freak accident at Druids Heath golf course in Aldridge.

DRIVING instructors all over the West Midlands were backing the Express & Star's campaign to give P-plates to all newly qualified drivers. The newspaper printed more than 8,000 green and white P-plates in an effort to increase road safety awareness.

2003...

THE tireless community work of a good samaritan earned her a top title within the Wolverhampton voluntary sector. Thelma Fish, aged 74, was named Volunteer of the Year after 38 years of dedicated service within the Portobello community.

HOLLYWOOD superstar Jeff Goldblum visited the Showcase Cinema at the Castlegate leisure complex in Dudley to preview his latest film, Igby Goes Down. The actor flashed a mischievous smile as he asked onlookers: "Is that a real McDonald's?"

THE Bishop of Wolverhampton attempted to learn about some of the difficulties faced by blind people by walking around the city centre blindfolded. The event was organised by bosses from the Beacon Centre for the Blind to encourage more people to raise funds for the charity.

Action vow as dumped rubbish attracting flies

Ian Gunner from Adcam, lives just over the road from the site where dumped rubbish is attracting flies

THE Environment Agency has had to be called in to investigate rubbish illegally dumped at abandoned offices in Rugeley.

Plastic, paper and cardboard left at the site in Redbrook Lane, Brereton are attracting fly infestations.

Cannock Chase Council has also called on its Environmental Health Department to help tackle the problem, which was discovered last week.

The council is also in contact with the property's owner, who has put the space up for sale.

Councillor Carl Bennett, the council's environment portfolio leader, said: "There are so many bags there, it's unbelievable. It's one hell of a mess."

He added: "There is no excuse for illegally dumping rubbish.

Choice

"Cannock Chase Council is committed to stopping fly-tipping, which cost us thousands of pounds each year and blights our area.

"This particular case in Rugeley is of such a large scale we have had no choice but to pass it to the Environment Agency and for any similar incidents the strongest action will be taken."

Councillor Bennett warned industrial site owners to be wary of renting out storage facilities, saying: "If people end up dumping rubbish there and cannot be located, it could come back to the people who have rented the site."

To report an environmental incident, call the Environment Agency's incident hotline on 0800 80 70 60. Alternatively, call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

LETTERS

A good reason for you not to own cats

THERE have been a number of letters recently about dog fouling but what about the matter of cat fouling?

I totally agree with dog owners cleaning up after their pets – I did so for many years when I had a dog, but what can be done about other people's cats coming into my back and front gardens and leaving their disgusting mess everywhere?

I've tried sprays, pellets and even bought an alarm that gives off a high pitched noise to deter a cat when it gets into the beam, but nothing works.

Why should I have to put up with this revolting problem when the owners have no idea where their cat is or what it's doing on other people's property?

I have heard it said 'you can't control a cat'. Well maybe that's a good enough reason not to have one!

Wake up before it's too late to save shops

THE 20 minute parking restriction enforced by Cannock Chase District Council in Market Street, Hednesford is killing the town. While the tickets issued must be generating a great income for the council, the shoppers have little chance to shop or use facilities in Market Street and the traders are suffering as a consequence.

It seems ironic that the council boast it has got £100,000 from the Mary Portas town centre innovation scheme to help rebuild town centres when it is enforcing the very parking restrictions that Portas herself highlights as being one of the main reasons for the failure of town centres up and down the land. I am sure that if Mary Portas was to also hear that the council have given 120 public parking spaces to Aldi to control with a restriction of 90 minutes and a £70 charge thereafter she would not be pleased to hear the council bragging about receiving funding with the Mary Portas name attached to it. To add to this, Staffordshire County Council has recently turned down a proposal to increase the streets parking to a more reasonable 40 minutes and states it should remain at 20 minutes. The cost to make the changes to 40 minutes is around £2,000. This is a drop in the ocean compared to the £100,000 Cannock council holds. Forty minutes and £2,000 is not an unreasonable amount to ask. If the district and county council do not listen to the advice of Mary Portas, I do not think Cannock Chase Council has any right to control the Mary Portas fund that is designed to help the very town centres they are are encouraging to fail. First Cannock, then Rugeley and now Hednesford. Wake up Cannock Chase Council before its too late.

Inspiring students are credit to school

I WOULD like to take say what an incredibly inspiring day I had at Great Wyrley Performing Arts High School.

Meeting the pupils and the teachers running their Sky Sports Living for Sport project was truly inspiring. I received a very enthusiastic welcome and the young people were keen to share their experiences and insights with me.

My role as a Sky Sports Athlete Mentor for Living for Sport, which is delivered in partnership with the Youth Sport Trust, is to motivate pupils to be the best that they can be in all areas of their life. I do this by running a mixture of different sporting activities for the students and my sharing own experiences as a professional sports person.

The pupils I met on this visit were a credit to Great Wyrley Performing Arts High School and I came feeling incredibly inspired myself. I hope that I have encouraged the pupils at Great Wyrley Performing Arts High School to keep focused on reaching their goals.

No logic over HS2

UNBELIEVABLE, isn't it? The Government cannot afford the £5.4 million needed to upgrade the Rugeley to Birmingham rail line which is used by many Staffordshire commuters daily. Yet it can afford the £33 billion (£66bn when built) for the HS2 which nobody living in Staffordshire will be able to set foot on.

Can anybody explain the logic?

Collection thank you

ON BEHALf of the Burntwood, Cannock and Lichfield branch of the Guide Dogs for the Blind Association I would like to say thank you to the staff for their cooperation and all the people who so kindly donated to our fund raising collection held at Morrison's, Cannock, on May 17 and 18.

Do not make journey to hospital any longer

I CANNOT understand why Monitor thinks it's desirable for Cannock/Stafford hospital patients to travel even further afield than they do now. My husband allows 45 minutes for a Cannock appointment; this includes 20 minutes to seek disabled parking if none is available outside the hospital.

Recently I was at Stafford A&E being checked out for a suspected TIA. In the event, I was admitted and my daughter had to drive home to fetch night things and medication.

Thank goodness Stafford was still there for me to go to. Had it been North Staffs, she would have driven some 88 miles in all. Longer journeys to hospital are stiffening for arthritic patients and, to my mind, cause unnecessary stress in already difficult circumstances.

NAME AND ADDRESS SUPPLIED

Public services, what next?

IT was interesting in the Chronicle, May 16 to read the letter from R Allen, Great Wyrley, about closing the 68 bus service. I am disabled and for my cancer I am due to commence radio-therapy at New Cross Hospital and planning to us the No 68 bus to get there, as it stops by New Cross.

So much for independent living and whatever happened to public services? What next? What about compulsory euthanasia for the disabled, elderly and unemployed. That would deal with the 'skivers', unless you earn £150,000 per year or more and are a bank executive.

T LOWE, Great Wyrley

I WOULD like to thank all those who voted for me as UKIP candidate in the recent county council elections. I appreciate your support.

Mitchel's a knockout as the stage set for final 12

Burntwood performer Mitchel Emms sings Need You Now during the knockout round of BBC1's The Voice

TEENAGE rocker Mitchel Emms has taken another huge step towards stardom after making the final 12 of the BBC's The Voice.

Mitchel, of Burntwood was selected by coach Danny O'Donoghue for the live stages, which get under way tomorrow night (Friday).

The 19-year-old performed Need You Now by Lady Antebellum on Sunday night's show to secure his place in the final 12.

He had beaten off stiff competition from Conor Scott, of Belfast, and Londoner Sean Rumsey. Mitchel said the song choice for the live contest, which is being kept under wraps, would be a different genre to what he is used to but vowed to show the same passion.

Feeling

He said: "I am feeling fantastic, and I am really looking forward to this week.

"I never thought I would ever get this far, I never thought I would get through the blind auditions. I am feeling very good and can't wait to show the British public what I can offer other than being a rock artist."

Putting Mitchel through, The Script frontman O'Donoghue said: "The reason why I chose Mitchel is that he represents me and team Dan, rock to the core.

"I really believe that there is room in the industry right now for an artist just like him."

Mitchel, whose uncle is Judas Priest rock star Al Atkins, is studying for a BA (Hons) in Music Technology and Popular Music at Wolverhampton University's Walsall Campus.

His mother Ros Hampton works at the university as part of the Office of the Dean of Students.

The prisoner of war football team who played while they were detained

Sgt Wolff before he was a Brocton Prisoner of War

Prisoner of War secrets unearthed by historians

STEALING coal, deceiving British guards and bribery – all skills learned by a German sergeant at a Cannock Chase Prisoner of War camp.

by Kirsten Rawlins

The story of Sergeant Erwin Wolff, who was detained at Brocton for 15 weeks, is believed to be the only detailed case ever unearthed by historians about PoW camps on the Chase.

When historians uncovered the tale of Sgt Wolff in diary-like files at the Imperial War Museum, it led them to the discovery of 'lines E and F' at the camp where Sgt Wolff was detained.

These lines played host to hundreds of transient prisoners during 1918 and housed German soldiers of sergeant rank and above until they were transferred to neutral Holland.

This followed a decision made in 1917 between British and German delegates that all prisoners would be interned in a neutral country. Sections A, B and D held lower ranking PoWs, used to carry out labour across the region, and line C was a 1,000-bed hospital used to treat German soldiers.

Historians Lee Dent and Richard Pursehouse discovered the tale of Sgt Wolff while undertaking the excavation of the scale-to-scale model of a Belgium battlefield used for training.

During the First World War, more than 500,000 British and allied soldiers were trained at the camps.

Mr Dent said: "Wolff is such an interesting case. It gives us a whole new personal take on the prisoner of war camps. Before we found the file on Sgt Wolff, the part he was kept in wasn't known about by Staffordshire County Council, which commissioned our work, at all. Lines E and F were used purely for prisoner transfer."

Sgt Wolff was captured during The Battle of the Somme in 1916 and served at labour companies throughout France before he was chosen to be one of 800 prisoners to be transported to Holland in January 1918.

Breakfast

While at Brocton, Wolff became involved in clandestine efforts to steal extra coal. Wolff revealed details of the daily rations. After rising at 6am, the men were served breakfast at 7. Dinner was served at noon and tea at 5pm.

Personal rations, issued at 4pm, were 5oz of bread, 4oz of biscuits, 1oz of jam, 1oz of sugar and 4oz of meat. These were to last a man 24 hours.

A ration of 30 cigarettes was issued every 10 days but was reduced to 15 cigarettes a month before transfer to Holland. According to the file, Sgt Wolff in later life said: "Didn't like Brocton – it lacked life's necessities."

Capturing Chasewater's transformation

The drained reservoir exposed old overflow pipes

An old boat was found at the bottom of the reservoir

A boardwalk over the water as it looks today

Brian Morgan has been capturing the refilling of the pool

A PHOTOGRAPHER has put readers in the picture over the £5.5m transformation of Chasewater reservoir – with a series of images documenting the changes.

Captured by photographer Brian Morgan over the past five years, the pictures show the gradual rise of the water levels and uncover the previously unseen barren floor of the pool.

The 75-year-old ventured to the country park every few weeks as he set about recording the transition. "I have been coming to Chasewater County Park for years," said Mr Morgan.

"When they drained it I thought I would come over and have a look as none of us had seen it empty before and it is likely to be a one-off.

Fascinating

"I found it fascinating and decided to start taking regular pictures.

"You could see the gradual change from initially a black mud covering the floor but over time came a sandy effect and then slowly the levels started to rise. There was no indication where the water came from. When it was empty it was quite striking seeing people walk across it. One morning I even saw a grand stag go across."

The reservoir near Brownhills reached its full capacity of nearly five billion litres in April after being drained in 2010 for repair work.

A brick-built chamber that does not appear on any plans was discovered after draining. A boat that sank in 1959 was also seen for the first time.

Alert issued to motorists after spate of break-ins

SIXTEEN cars were raided by thieves in Cannock Chase who grabbed sat navs, laptops and cash totalling thousands of pounds.

It later emerged that 10 of the vehicles targeted had been left unsecured. Police have now issued advice for motorists to prevent them falling victim.

by Kirsten Rawlins

Thieves targeted eight cars in Wimblebury, while seven cars were broken into in Barn Way, Horseshoe Drive and Victory Close on Tuesday night, May 28.

Another car in Hednesford Road was also struck, with the Chadsmoor, Bridgtown and Heath Hayes areas also being hit.

Locked

Chief Inspector Carl Ratcliffe is now urging motorists to make sure their cars are locked, that valuable items are removed and if possible, that cars are locked in a garage after dark.

Police are also reminding drivers not to leave their keys in their cars and to keep them out of sight when at home.

One man in his mid-20s was arrested and charged in connection with some of the thefts and has been remanded in custody.

A raid on a business premises in Bridgtown is also thought to have uncovered some of the stolen goods.

Barn Way resident Ian Jones' Vauxhall Astra was one of four cars targeted on Tuesday night. He said his partner had sicovered the theft.

"It happened as we got home around 8.30pm from walking the dog," the 30-year-old bricklayer said.

"There was no damage done to the car, but everything that was in the side door was on her seat. The glove box was open too and the sat nav was gone, as well as a couple of CDs."

Offers on the table for snooker champion Riley

Riley Parsons has pocketed the chance to practise at Landywood Snooker & Pool Club in Great Wyrley

SNOOKER clubs have been cue-ing up to offer the use of their tables to a young Cannock champion after his local venue closed suddenly.

Riley Parsons, aged 13, contacted clubs in his area after Rileys Sports Bar, in High Green, shut its doors last month.

He recently won the Staffordshire and West Midlands Under-14s Championship and qualified for the England Under-14s Championship in Leeds, ranking him among the country's top 16 players for his age group.

However, because of his age he had difficulty finding a club nearby that would let him use its facilities.

Now, after reading of Riley's splight in The Chronicle, three clubs have offered to help. They are Cannock Social, on Wolverhampton Road, Cannock Ex-serviceman's Club, on Walsall Road, and Landywood Snooker & Pool Ltd, in Great Wyrley.

Talent

A member of the committee from the ex-serviceman's club even paid the youngster a personal visit at his home on Merlin Close.

Riley's father Andrew, a 43-year-old mould maker at Armitage Shanks, said: "Riley was extremely upset and disappointed at the recent closure of the Riley's Cannock club and was initially very worried about how he would continue to practise and nurture his talent.

"However, he is delighted by the responses he has received and is very thankful to the three clubs for the support they have shown in offering their facilities.

"Riley will practise predominately at Landywood but will definitely make use of the facilities at the other two clubs."

Rileys' Cannock branch closed after the company fell into administration in November for the second time in three years.

Equipment firm secures a lucrative port contract

CANNOCK-based Briggs Equipment has secured a multi-million pound contract with one of the country's busiest ports to supply and service JCB equipment .

It will provide five JCB wheel loaders to the Peel Ports group in Liverpool which houses the country's largest animal feed store.

The company is building an extension which will expand capacity by 60 per cent.

Briggs is also supplying three JCB wheel loaders to Peel Ports in Runcorn, with another three on order. Bill Goodwin, Briggs' sales director, said: "We have an excellent long-term relationship with Peel Ports."

New unit as uniform store blazers a trail

Michael Garbett owner of Crested Schoolwear outside his new shop in Wolverhampton Road, Cannock

A SCHOOLWEAR shop, which opened in Cannock town centre just five months ago, is already on the move – after a boom in business.

Crested Schoolwear has moved from High Green Court to a bigger unit in Wolverhampton Road, creating two additional jobs.

Owner Michael Garbett said: "We moved to Cannock from Penkridge earlier this year and we had 10 schools signed up.

"But since moving in we've had a huge rush and we've got about 15 schools we provide the uniform for."

Mr Garbett, of Wolverhampton, runs the business with his brother Kelvin. They also have a store in St Mary's Mews, Stafford.

Waste plant bid is labelled 'bonkers'

SOUTH Staffordshire MP Gavin Williamson is preparing to meet with council chiefs to express his concerns over plans for a £20 million waste plant near Cannock.

The Conservative MP says the plan to build an anaerobic digester in Huntington is 'bonkers' and will be an eyesore for residents – particularly those living on the Littleton Green development.

by Kirsten Rawlins

The MP has written to Staffordshire County Council leader Phillip Atkins requesting a meeting with him and county councillor David Williams to voice his opposition to the proposals from Tipton-based firm The Humphries Holdings Group.

Block

"I'm very keen to highlight my continued opposition to these proposals," said Mr Williamson. "I want to block the plans. I think the proposals are completely bonkers.

"It will not only be an eyesore for local residents, but it's also far too close to many local properties – this particularly applies to the Littleton Green development and Littleton Green Primary School."

Mr Williamson has compared the site in Cocksparrow Lane to the £24 million Biffa waste plant in Heath Hayes.

Last year the company invested £800,000 in a bid to stop the smells plaguing residents on the Newlands Park Estate.

A 300-name petition against the Huntington plans was presented to Parliament this month. David Humphries, the man behind the scheme, says villagers' fears are unfounded.

Countryside detective talk

BRUCE Braithwaite guests at a meeting of The Friends of the Museum of Cannock Chase next Wednesday, June 12. His illustrated talk on 'The Countryside Detective' takes place at the Valley Road venue in Hednesford at 7.30pm. Admission is free and tea or coffee will be served at the end.

Nursery children watch as butterflies take flight

NURSERY children in Cannock have been watching caterpillars transform into butterflies.

The youngsters from Happy Tots at Orbital Plaza, Bridgtown, celebrated with an official 'butterfly release'.

Nursery manager Sarah Tilsley said: "The children have been fascinated by the whole process, and get so excited about seeing them change, then setting them free."

She said they also enjoyed feeding the butterflies sugared water and got involved in creative activities, such as painting colourful pictures and making caterpillar masks and butterfly wings.

New council chairman is named for year ahead

CANNOCK Chase District council has named Doris Grice as its chairman for the forthcoming year.

Councillor Grice, who represents Hednesford North and has sat on the council for 13 years, takes over the chain of office from Councillor Bob Todd.

New chairman Doris Grice

Born in Tipton, Councillor Grice moved to Featherstone when she was seven and finally settled in Hednesford aged 24 when she married her late husband Roy.

She left school at the age of 14 and worked in various factories in the area, retiring at the age of 62 from quality control.

She has a large extended family based in the Midlands including a daughter, two granddaughters and a sister in Leicester.

Councillor Grice said: "I want to uphold the integrity and do my best for the people in the district and those who need help."

Charities

She added: "If I could do anything it would be to bring jobs into the area. I am looking forward to meeting lots of different people along the way."

Councillor Grice's two nominated charities will be the Newlife Foundation for Disabled Children and Trinity Church and Drop In Centre in Hednesford and Rugeley. Councillor Alan Pearson has been named vice-chairman.

Councillor Grice's first official engagement was attending, by invitation, the Lord-Lieutenant of Staffordshire's service to mark the 60th anniversary of the Queen's Coronation, on Sunday, June 2.

US choir to help out in community

CHURCHGOERS hope to sing the praises of an American choir which will help out at community projects across Cannock.

The 60-strong Shades Mountain Baptist Church Choir from Alabama will join forces with members of CreateChurch: Cannock and Stafford's Rising Brook Baptist Church to help out on local community projects.

Volunteers will get stuck in on work at the Electric Palace Picture House in Walsall Road and gardening and DIY jobs on Cannock's Bevan Lee estate.

The choir will also visit primary schools to teach children the songs they will perform at an American fun day on June 15 at Cannock Park from 3-6pm.

Steve Graham, leader at CreateChurch: Cannock, said: "We are really excited to be partnering with our friends from the States."

The churches became partners thanks to Alabama couple Richie and Denise Bruce, who live in Stafford and attend CreateChurch: Cannock.

Discovery of body at home

A MAN has been found dead at a house in Cannock.

The 43-year-old, who has not been named, was discovered at a home in Mill Street, near Morrisons, at 8.30pm on Thursday.

Police were called to the scene by ambulance crews. The man's death is not being treated as suspicious.

Man has burns to face and is flown to hospital

West Midlands Ambulance Service was called to Cannock Clutch Centre in Watling Street, Bridgtown, shortly after 2.20pm on Friday (May 31).

Delight for groups over Queen's Award honour

by Tom Mason

DEDICATED voluntary groups across Cannock Chase have earned a prestigious accolade for their efforts.

Wyrley Juniors FC and the Friends of Beaudesert have been honoured with Her Majesty the Queen's Award for Voluntary Service, which recognises outstanding voluntary contributions and sets the national benchmark for excellence in volunteering.

The two organisations were joined by a number of others from Staffordshire to receive the commemorative crystal award from Staffordshire's Lord Lieutenant Ian Dudson.

Wyrley Juniors chairman Keith Hardy said: "We are delighted to hear the club has been recognised with this award. It is a wonderful reward for the many freely given hours that the 100 volunteers within the club give to the yong people of South Staffordshire and the local community."

Outstanding

Michael Street OBE, chairman of the Friends of Beaudesert, which this year celebrates its 75th anniversary of providing activities to thousands of children a year, said: "We are all absolutely delighted with winning the award

"It demonstrates the outstanding contribution our volunteers provides but also undermines the safe environment and brilliant experiences we offer to young people across the country.

"It's the perfect birthday present for us as we celebrate so many years of helping young people enjoy Cannock Chase."

The award has only been won by 38 organisations in the region since it was first introduced during the Queen's golden jubilee in 2002.

Lord Lieutenant Ian Dudson CBE, who is Her Majesty's representative for Staffordshire, said: "I want to congratulate this year's winners."

Project co-ordinator Daphne Sharp with members of the Mase group

PROUD supporters of a Staffordshire charity are celebrating the honour of the Queen's Award for voluntary services.

Mase (Monthly Alzheimer's Support Evening) helps those whose lives are affected by the condition.

It was set up four years ago and holds sessions in Cannock, Rugeley and Great Wyrley. Four of its volunteers have been invited to London for the Queen's Garden party today (Thursday).

Project co-ordinators Daphne Sharp said: "We are really proud of this achievement."

Why your gold shouldn't be sold

In these difficult economic times, why not utilise the assets you already own to make life easier? If you need access to money quickly due to a change of circumstances, consider maximising the value of your precious or unwanted gold jewellery.

With the price of gold set to rise – why sell at todays prices

Nowadays, you may have lost faith in the banks but gold is always a currency to trust. Throughout history, gold has remained the most popular precious metal and is considered a great investment. That's because you can rely on gold to consistently hold its value. In fact, the price of gold has increased dramatically over time. In 1993, gold was worth only £7.93 per gram but is worth an astonishing £30 per gram today.

In hard times, it therefore makes complete sense to use gold jewellery as collateral against a short term loan with a pawnbroker. After all, if you were to sell your jewellery, you wouldn't be able to claim your precious items back at a later date, by then the price of gold may have increased further still. So, don't sell your jewellery – consider pawnbroking instead.

Solution

A pawnbroker can guide you through the simple steps. With no credit or background checks required, a cash loan can be secured in as little as five minutes. The loan is secured against all or part of the value of the items pledged. In contrast to taking out a loan, this process is certainly a more convenient and a low risk way of accessing vital funds.

A low rate of interest is paid monthly, usually over a maximum of six months, until the item is redeemed back. Your treasured jewellery items can be easily recovered once the loan and interest is paid. At Cashline Pawnbrokers, we're proud to state that 60% of people we deal with manage to reclaim their jewellery.

As a special limited offer, Cashline Cannock are also offering a FREE costume jewellery necklace, bracelet or ring with every pawn transaction – valid until the end of August, 2013.

For further information, phone the Cashline Pawnbrokers Cannock store, Cannock Shopping Centre (situated by Argos) on 01543 897 756 or visit www.cashlinepawnbrokers.co.uk. Cashline is also located at Bull Ring Indoor Market, Birmingham or St Michael Street, West Bromwich.

Cashline was established in 1989.

Handball players hope to net shock win

Front, from left to right, Cannock Olympia handball players Megan Connor, aged 16, Annie Hicklin, 13, Hannah Talbot, 13, with back, left to right, Jess Fowler, 15, Harriet Richards, 16, Hannah Grosvenor, 17, and Megan Shirley, 16

SPORTING starlets are preparing for a tilt at title glory this weekend. The Olympia Cannock handball under-18 girls team is preparing for national finals at London's Crystal Palace.

The girls face a daunting task when they step out against Manchester Hawks, who are unbeaten to date.

But team members, who go to the Cardinal Griffin Catholic High School and Kingsmead Technology College, are confident they can pull off a shock.

The finals will be held in London on Saturday (June 8).

Club chairman Nenad 'Pop' Popovic said: "They are playing really well now and we are determined to do our best and not let the town down. The girls are really excited to be playing in the finals."

The team is coached by Maria Hollingsworth, a former Cardinal Griffin pupil. People interested in chancing their arm at handball can attend open sessions each Wednesday between 7pm and 8pm at Chase Leisure Centre, in Stafford Road.

Drug use prevalent in pubs

POLICE say town centre pubs and clubs across Staffordshire have become hotspots for drugs such as heroin, cocaine and cannabis.

Officers say levels of cocaine were particularly high and have pledged to work with landlords and owners to bring illegal drug use down.

As part of new initiative Operation Safer Nights a team carried out swabs on revellers entering and inside licensed premises, while they also took samples from pubs and clubs in a series of unannounced visits.

Inspector Jared White, head of the force's licensing team, said: "The drug we've mainly found is cocaine – it's quite prevalent in town centre pubs.

Links

"It's in all major town centres, including Lichfield, Cannock and Stafford. We've carried out testing in South Staffordshire as well. Cocaine is being used in bars in Cannock and Stafford.

"We believe there are links between the use of alcohol and cocaine and night-time violence."

Officers are now using the swab scheme to work alongside venues.

Insp White said: "We swab the male and female toilets and communal areas to find out whether drugs have been used and to what level.

"We then get in touch with the venues to see what their plan is to reduce drug use. We test them again after six weeks and if it carries on, we reserve the right to take them to the licensing authority."

Towering feat as cyclist completes 150-mile ride

WAYNE Matthews cried tears of joy when he saw the sign reading 'Welcome to Blackpool' – and he can't stand the place.

The 44-year-old had just completed a 150-mile cycle ride from his home in Cannock to raise £425 for Macmillan Cancer Support.

The former automotive quality control inspector travelled 17 hours and 10 minutes through wind and rain, and through the night, to reach his destination.

Mr Matthews, of Walsall Road, said: "When I saw the sign I had tears in my eyes. It was a mixture of how difficult it was and how happy I was to have made it.

"I'd never done anything like that before and I was going into the unknown."

Mr Matthews cycled along the A5 to Weston under Lizard and on the A41 towards Whitchurch, before heading on to Nantwich, Warrington, Preston and finally Blackpool.

Soaking

He said: "It was absolutely pouring it down when I started.

"When I got to Weston under Lizard I was soaking wet, but I never lost hope. I am really pleased to have completed the cycle challenge and I would like to say thank you to all my sponsors around the Cannock area.

"Cancer can come unexpectedly to any of us at any time and Macmillan nurses are there to help, so we are pleased to have supported the charity."

Mr Matthews is already planning his next charity cycle – from Cannock to London.

Janos Toth, Macmillan's area fundraising manager, said: "It is fantastic that Wayne has completed his cycle challenge to raise money for people affected by cancer.

"On behalf of Macmillan Cancer Support I would like to thank him."

Janos Toth from Macillan Cancer Support receives a cheque for £405 from Wayne Matthews, of Cannock, who cycled from thr town to Blackpool

Champion dog off on walkies to aid causes

A FORMER Cannock head-teacher who named her pedigree champion dog after her school which closed down is to take part in a special charity walk alongside a Crufts Best in Show winner.

Cresta Garner was the head of the former John Wood Infants School for 30 years. It closed in 2005.

She named her six-year-old Glen of Imaal terrier Woody to keep the name of the school alive.

And Woody has gone on to win six champion of champion events now under his show name Johnny Be Good.

The pair are now set to take part in a special walk called Jilly's Jolly Jaunt.

Route

The event has been organised by Gavin Robertson whose Basset Griffon Vendeen named Jilly won the 2013 Crufts Best in Show.

They plan to walk 130 miles from the NEC in Birmingham to Great Ormond Street Hospital in London to raise money for GOSH, Dog Lost charities and the KC Charitable Trust.

The walk takes place along the Grand Union Canal from June 10-14 and Miss Garner and Woody are set to walk more tha five-and-a-half miles of the route on Tuesday (June 11).

Miss Garner's old pet Stanley was also a Glen of Imaal breed and became a favourite with pupils at John Wood as it enjoyed the role of school dog for many years. John Wood Infants School closed following an amalgamation with Walhouse Junior School to form St Luke's Primary School.

Cresta Garner and Woody who are taking part in a charity sponsored walk

Miss Garner said: "I always wanted to keep the name of John Wood Infant School alive despite its closure. Pupils loved my old dog Stanley and chose the breed of the Glen Of Imaal terrier following a school visit to Crufts.

"They chose the breed because they do have a face like a teddy bear. When Stanley died I wanted to have another Glen of Imaal and name him after the school.

"Woody has done so well winning six champion of champion events and has made several visits to Crufts.

"This walk is very important as it is raising money for several very worthwhile causes. We are just delighted to support the event."

To sponsor Miss Garner, e-mail her at crestagarner@hotmail.co.uk

The world accordion to Pauline

ETCHING HILL WI

MEMBERS celebrated the 67th birthday of the institute with Pauline Hardwick who gave a talk entitled 'My Musical Life with an Accordion'.

Mrs Hardwick told about her late father whose love of music influenced her life. As a young man he played the accordion while riding a unicycle and had toured with a young Hughie Green around the theatres of Britain. While on tour he met a dancer, who became his assistant, and wife.

On her 12th birthday Mrs Hardwick's father bought her an accordion and soon she, and her younger brother who played drums, were touring theatres with their mother and father as the D'Arcy Family. At the end of the talk members were treated to a few songs accompanied by Mrs Hardwick playing her accordion.

As it was the institute's birthday members had donated food for a buffet supper, followed by a slice of birthday cake baked by Betty Watkins and decorated by Gaye Whitlock.

Members were given their copy of the excellent and varied programme of speakers for this year. There will be something for everyone, and members are looking forward to the outings.

The first social event will be a Skittles night at the Hen House in Hednesford. In July there will be an outing to Bantock House in Wolverhampton.

Further details on the club can be found at www.wi-etching-hill.org.uk

21st birthday party marks achievements

President Ed Rule and his partner Lion Rose Cowley welcome guests Mr & Mrs Lock

RUGELEY LIONS

TO celebrate 21 years of service Rugeley and District Lions Club held their annual Charter Dinner at the Hawkesyard Golf Club and did themselves proud.

Cannock Chase MP Aidan Burley, together with the present and two past Lions District Governors attended the party to celebrate the club's considerable achievements since its formation in 1992.

President, Ed Rule welcomed guests from 12 other Lion Clubs, the Rotary Club of Rugeley, Probus, Renaissance, Rugeley Stroke Club and Mase and highlighted the changes that had occurred over the last 12 months. Mr Burley illustrated the role voluntary organisations can play in supporting their local communities with District Governor Rob Brown explaining how Lions International contribute to the welfare of people across the globe.

Rugeley Lions Club is looking to recruiting more members. Call 07773 333575 or look them up on Facebook.

Topical talk at wartime hut

LANDOR LOCAL HISTORY SOCIETY

AFTER a rainy and cold May Day approximately 40 members had a fine sunny evening for their first outing of the summer on the 15th.

The meeting, at the Great War Hut at Marquis Drive on Cannock Chase, was addressed by Stephen Dean, principal archaeologist at Stafford County Council. The huts provided transit training camps before the men were shipped abroad to fight in the war.

The group then drove to the site of the WWI Messines model. The battle of Messines Ridge took place in June 1917 near Ypres in Belgium; the terrain model represents the section of the front captured by New Zealand troops.

It was very topical as in 2014 it will be a 100 years since the start of WWI.

In June there will be a visit to St Bartholemew's in Tong followed by a supper.

Record numbers expected at fun run and family day

A record number of runners are expected to take part in the annual Penkridge Fun Run and Fun day.

by Charlotte Lilley

Final preparations are being made for the popular event which will be held from the Haling Dene Centre on Cannock Road, on June 30.

Last year more than 600 runners completed the two-and-a-half mile circuit and raised almost £5,000 for local charities.

This year, entry has been opened early to encourage more people to take part.

Forms

The run is organised by Penkridge and District Round Table and chairman Elliot Goodbody said he was looking forward to it.

He said: "After last year's Olympic record numbers, we're opening entry early to allow people to get their forms back in plenty of time and with the weather picking up, we know people are ready for a day out, and what could be better than the community atmosphere that the Fun Day brings?"

The run, which starts at 11am, is open to people of all ages and abilities with an organised start for runners and joggers.

Entry charges for advanced registrations up until June 26 are £2 for under-16s, £4 for over-16s and £10 for a family of four.

All times will be recorded and trophies handed out for youngsters under the age of 18 as well as adults and seniors.

During the day there will also be a host of stalls, performers, fairground rides, face painting, Rugeley Power Station brass band, a licensed bar and a barbecue.

Entry forms for the fun run and more information is available by visiting www.penkridge.round-table.co.uk or emailing penkridgefunrun@btinternet.com

Fine food and crafts on offer at market

A FINE food and craft market will be offering shoppers in Penkridge the chance to pick up some tasty treats next weekend.

The indoor market will have a range of local produce on display on Saturday, June 15, including cheeses, breads, olives, homemade cakes, pies and preserves.

Local farms will be selling their meat, eggs and game.

Cushions

Also on offer will be various stalls selling handmade jewellery, vintage gifts, cards, cushions, homeware and hand painted pots.

It will be held at the market site off Pinfold Lane between 9am and 4pm. Admission and parking is free. For more information call 01785 714221 or log onto www.penkridgemarket.co.uk

Summer fete held at church

A SUMMER fete will be held at St Michael's and All Angels Church in Penkridge next week.

Cakes, books, bric-a-brac and toiletries will be on sale from 1pm on June 15.

There will also be baking, handicraft and gardening competitions. Forms are available from the haling Dene. Closing date is June 8.

Children's garden workshop

YOUNGSTERS are invited to a free gardening workshop in Gailey on Sunday (June 9). Accompanied children aged from four-to-10 can find out more about bees and honey at Dobbies Garden Centre from 11am. Everyone who attends will be given a sunflower to grow and enter into the centre's tallest sunflower competition. For more, call 01902 791555.

Barrie Williams, of Wollaston, near Stourbridge, who will be joining a Penkridge friend on a 360-mile drive in one day for charity in his Hillman Aero Minx

Pair head off on epic trip

A CLASSIC car enthusiast will fire up his 1934 Hillman Aero Minx to complete a 360-mile charity challenge in a day.

Barrie Williams will set off from Penkridge on June 12 or 13 and will be joined by a friend from the village, 69-year-old Robin Gray. They will share driving duties and will travel to Liverpool and Grimsby before then heading back to the starting point.

Mr Williams, of Wollaston, Stourbridge first hit on the idea after hearing a motorcyclist had completed a coast-to-coast challenge and raised thousands for charity.

Carers

Money will go to the Leukaemia Unit Appeal which supports the Georgina Unit at Dudley's Russells Hall Hospital. A donation will also be made to Crossroads Care, which helps to support carers and provide help for people who need it.

Mr Williams is a member of the Baden-Powell Guild's Stourbridge branch and Crossroads Care is the group's chosen charity. He wanted to raise money for Russells Hall after being treated for appendicitis there.

His mother Florence Williams and sister Valerie Smith died of cancer which he is why he decided to donate to the Georgina Unit.

Help is at hand on a number of issues

A MOBILE police station will be parked up in Penkridge later this month offering residents advice on a number of issues.

South Staffs Council's Housing benefits advisers will be available at the station off Mill Street on June 19 from 10.30am, offering help and information on housing benefits and council tax support.

Prevention

Staffordshire Police will also be on hand with information about crime prevention and residents will be able to meet local officers.

Staffordshire Fire and Rescue Service will offer home safety fire advice and there will be representatives from Neighbourhood Watch.

Domestic Smartwater kits to forensically mark valuables will be on sale for £15.

Leisure centre holiday events

PENKRIDGE Leisure Centre is urging children to book for its summer activities.

This year's programme includes archery, judo, football, sailing and dance sessions. There will also be a crash course in swimming, an army boot camp and craft activities.

Website dishes out award for traditional pub grub

Landlord Bill Wilkinson celebrates receiving a Trip Advisor award at the Red Lion pub in Brereton

A RUGELEY pub which is pioneering a Man v Food challenge has seen its more traditional menu come under the spotlight.

The Red Lion at Brereton has been presented with a Trip Advisor award for 'consistently earning high ratings' from customers.

Owner Bill Wilkinson took over the Main Street pub just over two years ago and has since transformed the business. Among the more popular dishes on the menu is a whole chicken served to the table for diners to divide among themselves.

Mr Wilkinson, aged 54 said: "We're very old school in our style. It is just good English cooking and plenty of it.

Certificate

"We're delighted with the award – we've always had good feedback but this puts it on an official footing. We're looking forward to putting up the certificate." The pub, which has 20 full and part-time staff, hit the headlines in February when it became one of the first to set up a competition inviting customers to polish off a supersize meal.

"Many have tried but no one has yet managed to finish one of the meals," said Mr Wilkinson. "The title is still going begging.

"We started the regular Wednesday night sessions in February, long before anyone else was doing it. You have to order in advance because the meals take a bit of preparation."

Group sets the Pace with Lottery donation

Members of Pace 2000, with fitness instructor Alwin Collins, front centre, celebrate the Big Lottery Fund cash

A PENKRIDGE fitness group is jumping for joy after being awarded Lottery funding of just under £4,000.

Pace 2000, an over 50s group which centres on exercise and healthy lifestyle, was handed £3,970 from the Big Lottery Fund, which will cover the group's ongoing activities for 12 months.

A Pace 2000 spokesman said: "The covering of ongoing activities is a new approach following requests from the public and we applied under the pilot scheme which was run in the West Midlands area. The funding will give us more flexibility in booking speakers on new topics." Pace 2000 started in September 1999 to raise awareness of healthy living through regular exercise and a programme of topics of general interest for the over 50s.

The group meets in the Haling Dene Centre, Cannock Road, every Friday from 1.15 to 4pm for 39 weeks a year and welcome new members from Penkridge and the surrounding areas.

For more details visit www.pace2000.org.uk or call Ann on 01785 713407.

Pub to reopen as restaurant

A POPULAR pub in Cannock has closed despite a Facebook campaign to save it.

The Fern and Fallow in Stafford Road, will reopen instead as an 80-seater creating at least 16 jobs.

The pub, famous for its tribute band nights, went up for sale in January, sparking a move by customers to keep it in the Marston's fold.

It has been bought by a convenience store owner whose sons will run the business. They plan to transform it into a bar and grill, specialising in piri-piri chicken and burgers. The new business will also have a takeaway outlet. New owner Bobby Bhandal, who runs Costcutter in Raynor Road, Wolverhampton, and The Off-Licence in Cannock Road, Chadsmoor, plans to spend between £160,000 and £200,000 on the transformation.

His sons Jess Bhandal, aged 25, and 24-year-old Raj, will run the business.

Bench is Phab tribute to group's founder member

Members of Rugeley PHAB admire the new bench installed in memory of their founder Len Evans

A BENCH has been installed in memory of a well-known Rugeley man who was instrumental in the creation of a local disability group.

Len Evans has had his life immortalised by members of Rugeley PHAB (Physically Handicapped Able Bodied), who with the help of Cannock Chase District Council, sited a new bench overlooking the lake in Elmore Park, Rugeley.

Branch

The former chairman of the village hall committee was known locally for his charity work and helped found the local branch of PHAB, an organisation that helps disabled people, along with his wife Peggy.

Current members of the club met at the bench to remember the actions of their founder who died aged 87 in October last year. The dedicated charity worker also ran the Clarkson Cup charity, which raised money for pensioners, children and the village church.

A close-up of the plaque on the memorial bench

Rugeley PHAB continues to run and meets on Monday from 7pm to 9pm at St. Augustine's Church Hall.

For more information about the club contact Margaret Bullock on 01543 276271.

Steven Burchell Dip CDT RCS (Eng) (GDC108353) with Denture Clinic manager Peter Brookes (GDC124429)

Denture troubles? Unable to live life spontaneously?

Your smile is priceless

THERE'S seemingly an impossible amalgamation between glamour and dentures, but these unlikely descriptive bedfellows are increasingly being thrown together at a Wolverhampton clinic.

Under the watchful eye of denturist Steven Burchell DipCDT RCS(Eng), founder of the Dudley-based Denture Clinic, regular surgeries held at his Tettenhall Road practice are helping patients turn back the hands of time.

The practice is part of a growing portfolio of locations with surgeries also at North Street, Dudley; Fresh Dental in St Mary's Road, Bearwood; and most recently, Comberton Dental Surgery in Comberton Road, Kidderminster.

A champion for those who wear dentures, Steven has spent more than ten years campaigning to "break the taboo over false teeth."

He is evangelical about what new generation denture prescriptions can achieve.

"Dentures have traditionally never been associated with cosmetic makeovers, but our high-quality prosthetics have quite literally taken years off some of our patients," he said.

"People have come to us with ill-fitting dentures, sunken cheeks and pinched lips and we have been privileged to transform their looks. Can dentures be glamorous? Emphatically, yes.

"We remain on the cusp of development, so that those who entrust their smile to us can be sure they will be advised on the best options."

Steven's work has attracted people from all walks of life, including a former SAS mountain warfare specialist, an airline pilot, a multi-millionaire with his own jet, health professionals and "ordinary salt-of-the-earth people from the Black Country."

The clinic's prosthetics, hand-crafted at laboratories at the Dudley and Wolverhampton practices, have also found satisfied patients from as far away as Spain and Portugal. And the secret of his success? A seamless service to clients, where clinical assessment and the crafting of prescriptions are all in-house.

"It's a simple formula," said Steven, "but it has allowed me to be fastidious about the quality of teeth we supply.

"We will never compromise on best clinical outcomes and that same ethos is core to all of our clinics. We are always reimagining what dentures can achieve."

He admitted that denture wearers are one of the most challenging groups to treat successfully, presenting some "monumental" challenges.

"Many patients have had a bad deal for years, but we are in the vanguard of changing outcomes and hopefully changing some lives for the better too," said Steven.

Steven draws on more than 30 years' experience in all disciplines of dental technology to produce his hallmark "functional, natural-looking teeth."

Having completed his training as a dental technician and started his own laboratory, Steven enrolled on a three-and-a-half year CDT training course with the George Brown College in Toronto, Canada, to enable him to work in his dental discipline independently of a dentist.

Graduating with honours, Steven undertook a further year's study under the auspices of The Royal College of Surgeons.

Summer fair aims to mark coronation

A BURNTWOOD church is celebrating the Queen's coronation with a summer fair next weekend.

It takes place on Saturday, June 15, from noon until 3pm at St John's Community Church, in High Street, Chase Terrace and will include a 'Palace boot sale', 'Crown Jewels and gifts' stall, 'Queen of Hearts' cake stand, 'toys that One's children would like to play with' stall, 'posh frocks and gladrags' and a 'green fingers' plant stall.

Other attractions include charity stalls and outdoor games, musical entertainment, including from St John's own singing duo. Light lunches and cream teas will be on sale from the tea rooms.

Lacey's rewarded

Councillor Bob Todd presents Cannock Chase Council's Youth Endeavour Award Lacey Stevens for her fundraising work for Katharine House Hospice

A STUDENT from Hednesford has been recognised for her fundraising work by being presented with Cannock Chase Council's annual Youth Endeavour Award.

Lacey Stevens from Kingsmead Technology College in Kings Avenue was nominated for the award by her teacher Mr Broomhall for her fundraising efforts in aid of Katharine House Hospice.

The pupil has raised has raised more than £700 by taking part in the charity's annual five-mile 'Winter Walk', which starts and ends at Milford Common and carrying out special fundraising events inside and outside of school.

She received the award from outgoing council chairman Bob Todd, in front of a busy meeting of the Full Council.

The councillor for Hednesford Green Heath, said: "Most stories about young people today are negative, our Youth Endeavour Award gives us the opportunity to recognise and reward the positive achievements made to our community by our young people. It was a pleasure to meet Lacey and present her with the award, she is a worthy winner."

Speeders target of safety drive

POLICE targeted speeding drivers in Cannock and Rugeley as part of a road safety crackdown.

Officers from the Cannock Chase Local Policing Team carried out checks on Sunday (June 2) following residents' concerns about speeding.

Roads covered included Main Road in Brereton, Etchinghill Road, in Rugeley and the Cannock roads of Cannock Wood Street, Moss Road, Pye Green Road and New Penkridge Road.

One driver received a £60 fixed penalty notice for speeding and officers seized a vehicle from a disqualified driver who had no insurance.

Additionally, 11 motorists were given educational leaflets about the consequences of speeding.

Chief inspector Carl Ratcliffe, Cannock Chase LPT commander, said: "We've carried out a number of operations to clamp down on speeding across Cannock Chase in recent months.

"We've responded to residents' concerns about irresponsible driving in particular streets and will continue to do so.

"The risk of death is approximately four times higher when a pedestrian is hit at 40mph than at 30mph.

"Road safety is a top priority for local officers and our partners.

Seized

"People who put pedestrians and other motorists at risk will be dealt with firmly."

Staffordshire Police has seized more than 100 vehicles since launching its 'Cars Behind Bars' campaign to clamp down on uninsured drivers.

Police and Crime Commissioner Matthew Ellis launched the campaign as part of plans to tackle insurance dodgers.

Group awaits gardens trip

MEMBERS of a Cannock social group are looking forward to trip to Trentham Gardens. Around 20 members of Highfield Friends will enjoy the day out,made possible partly by a £140 donation from construction company Balfour Beatty. The voluntary group was formed by Chase Council for Voluntary Service to provide adults with a place to socialise and to promote independence. It is funded by Staffordshire County Council, commissioned by Cannock Social Care and Health and meets weekly at the Highfields Centre, Smalley Close, Hightown, for activities, speakers and lunches.

EATING OUT

Dining gem is jewel in the crown of carveries

Mill Farm, Lichfield Road, Cannock

IN the year that The Queen celebrates 60 years since her coronation, a Cannock pub has undergone a right royal makeover.

The Mill Farm remains a popular Crown carvery, but as one of the chain's 'jewels in the crown' was chosen to undergo the extensive refit.

Of 116 Crown carveries nationwide, only 10 are deemed 'jewels' and the refurbishment has led to positive feedback from customers old and new.

The carvery was always the mainstay of the business. However, manager Derek Reilly is now transforming the Mill Farm into a traditional family-orientated local.

Classics

The carvery remains, and at £4.19, or £3.69 for a child's meal, offers terrific value, with pork, gammon and turkey all on offer, and very good too, according to my dining party.

Sundays are all about roasts, while a new classics menu has been introduced – featuring fish and chips, sausages and my choice, steak and ale pie. It went down equally as well, demonstrating there is more to life than a carvery in a Crown outlet.

The puddings proved a winner too with our options being waffle sundae, chocolate fudge sensation, millionaire brownie and peach melba cheesecake.

The Mill Farm also provides a regular children's menu, vegetarian options and a popular takeaway service.

Breakfasts are served as well and coach parties regularly turn up to enjoy the all you can eat feasts.

The pub even has its own mascot, a bear called Harvey – and he will soon be seen around the town with promoting new offers.

Diners enjoy a meal at Mill Farm, a Crown carvery, Lichfield Road, Cannock

The 'sport' area at the Mill Farm with pool table, dartboard, and Sky TV

The facelift has given the Mill Farm an airy, contemporary feel. The pool table has been moved to create more space for customers in the bar, families are welcome in the dining area, while regulars are also welcome to play darts, watch Sky TV or try their hand at a new weekly quiz.

Requests

Derek said he had listened to customers' requests and was implementing what they wanted to see.

"Before, people were happy to come in and have their meal, then away they went," he said. "Now, we want them to stay here for longer and they are happy to do so."

Regular entertainment nights and charity fundraisers are also on the agenda at the Mill Farm.

Opening times are 9-11am for breakfast Monday to Friday and until 11.30am on Saturday and Sunday.

The pub is open from 11am to 11pm each day, while operating hours for the carvery are 11am to 9.30pm weekdays and from 11.30am on weekends. Call 01543 466770.

New home sought for dogs, aged four

TWO Rugeley women who find a welcome home for dogs, are looking for owners to take in two Patterdale terriers.

Ruth Dewis and Pauline Roberts are looking for the dogs, one male, one female, to be rehoused together. Both are four-years-old.

Ruth said: "They are fine with children and walk well on the lead. They don't bother about other dogs. The male is very loving and calm but the female is the more bubbly and cheeky of the two."

To help, call Ruth on 07900 090993 or Pauline on 07971 817877 or see www.facebook. com/rugeleydogwelfare

A home check will be required as well as a small donation.

Charity's cuppa treat

Jade Smith, Carol Smith, Tia Keeling, Ellie Smith and Ben Smith are all taking part in the fun run and coffee morning

GINGERBREAD and fruit cake, lemon slices and cup cakes were all snapped up to raise cash for a good cause.

The sweet treats were on sale at a coffee morning in Penkridge to raise money for Crohn's and Colitis UK, a charity which supports sufferers.

Carol Smith, whose 15-year-old son Jaq was diagnosed with Crohn's disease last year, organised the special coffee morning at the village's Cross Keys pub.

She also organised a raffle with prizes of a grocery hamper, magnum of champagne and a wooden wall planter. The event raised more than £400 for the charity.

Support

"The weather was warm and lots of people came out to support us. Mary Fereday, the landlady, allowed us to stay for as long as we wanted. The cakes were fantastic – someone even made an Oreo cake."

The 47-year-old, of Fallowfield Close, now plans to run the Penkridge Fun Run at the end of the month along with eight family members and friends. She said: "Now I've started, I can't stop. My daughter and I have had so much help from people. We just want to raise as much as we can."

Wolgarston High School pupil Jaq was quite ill for six months but his condition has stabilised, said Carol. He is now being treated with an infusion of drugs from a drip every eight weeks.

Alcohol seized by police from school leavers

POLICE seized a quantity of alcohol from teenagers as part of operations to crackdown on under-age drinkers.

The booze was confiscated from youths out celebrating leaving school.

In total officers from Lichfield District Local Policing Team took 32 cans of Carlsberg, 16 bottles of Budweiser, six bottles of Fosters Gold and six bottles of Kopparberg cider as well as three alcopops and a single can of strongbow. The massive haul of booze was taken from the former students on a single night as part of operations to tackle anti-social behaviour in Chasetown.

PCSO Jenna Gibbons said: "Staffordshire Police takes all reports of anti-social behaviour seriously and work with our partners to ensure that when issues are highlighted we work together to resolve them to everybody's satisfaction as quickly as we can."

Anyone with concerns about anti-social behaviour should contact Staffordshire Police on 101.

Take a look at Chadsmoor

Chadsmoor and High Town to the north-east of Cannock represent the late-19th-and 20th-century expansion of the town as a mining area.

They now form an almost continuously built-up area joining Cannock to Hednesford. Much of West Chadsmoor consists of council and other housing dating from between the two World Wars and later.

As well as its popular row of niche village shops, Chadsmoor is a popular place for eating out with a number of Indian takeaways within a short distance.

It has a distinctive church history with a school-church being opened in 1874, with transepts and a small chancel being added in 1876. The foundation stone of the present church of St Chad was laid at Easter 1891 'in the presence of a large company of miners and their families', and the church was consecrated in 1892. It is built of machine-made red brick and consists of nave, chancel, south porch, vestry, and organ chamber. Stained glass was inserted in the east window in 1908 in memory of Tabitha Benton. There is one bell in a turret at the north-west corner of the church.

The small wooden church of St Aidan in Pye Green Road, West Chadsmoor, was in use from 1947 to 1956 when it was converted into a church hall. It had one bell. The present church, begun in 1955 on a nearby site on the opposite side of the road, was opened in 1956, the architects being Wood, Goldstraw, and Yorath of Stoke on Trent. Built of light-brown brick, the church consists of a wide nave, a shallow chancel, a south vestry, and a north porch, and has one bell.

A Primitive Methodist chapel was built at Chadsmoor in 1876 and was replaced in 1911 by a new chapel built in front of it. By 1956, the former chapel was being used as a Sunday school and also as a day school. The present chapel, of red brick with stone Gothic windows and doorways, was designed by Jeffries and Shipley.

There is one Baptist chapel, built in Arthur Street, in 1905 at a cost of £1,000. It replaced an earlier Baptist chapel, which stands behind it and was built in 1879. This former chapel was used as a Sunday school and as an overflow for Chadsmoor Central Boys' School. The present chapel is of red brick with stone dressings and leaded windows. It has seating accommodation for 250.

Boys Brigade in very own soap story

Cheslyn Hay Boys Brigade during the fundraising car wash at Salem Church, which raised £360

MEMBERS of Cheslyn Hay Boys Brigade washed almost 40 cars over a three-hour fundraising period.

The money-spinning initiative took place at the Salem Church in High Street on Saturday, June 1.

A spokesman said the boys, aged nine to 18, had worked very hard, with more than £360 being raised for Boys Brigade funds and to help them participate in this year's Great Wyrley Carnival.

A tombola, cake stall, tea and coffee, handmade gifts, jewellery, cards and book stall all helped to boost the coffers. The spokesman said: "It really was a great success. We are very proud of all the boys that were involved and we would like to thank everyone who came along and supported us."

Any boys, aged from five to 18, wishing to join the Boys Brigade, can find out further information from Captain David Slater 01922 416670.

Meetings are held on Mondays from 6.30-7.30pm for boys aged five-to-eight, on Friday evenings from 7-8.30 for eight-to-12-year-olds and on Wednesdays from 7.30-9.30pm for boys aged 12-18 at The Salem Church Hall.

Vernon Lodge shines as a hidden education gem

LESS than 10 miles from Wolverhampton, eight miles from Cannock and 12 miles from Telford, Vernon Lodge Preparatory School and Kindergarten is a traditional preparatory school mixed with modern teaching and excellent facilities.

The school in School Lane, Stretton, near Brewood, is often referred to as the hidden gem!

From entry into our Kindergarten, aged two, until leaving at Year 6, aged 11, all Vernon Lodge pupils go through a wonderful journey of exploration, education and enquiry.

Our teachers know each individual child – our small class numbers allows individualised learning – and the compassionate and nurturing environment allows the children to make progress both educationally and socially.

Pupils at Vernon Lodge Preparatory go through a wonderful experience

Explore

What's more, says headteacher Pat Stills: "The advantage of a Junior Preparatory School, as opposed to an all-through school, is that our year 6 leavers gain a much wider choice for their senior education through thorough exam preparation."

Our mission statement speaks for itself . . .

We believe that Vernon Lodge School is more than just a school; it is a place where children can question, explore and investigate.

A place where our community of teachers and parents are involved in the development of the whole child, while encouraging creativity and instilling a love of learning and respect for their environment.

We encourage our children to become responsible, caring individuals. We create an atmosphere of safety, security and friendship where we can encourage our pupils to become independent thinkers whilst ensuring their spiritual, emotional, intellectual and moral needs are developed.

Each and every child brings with them something unique and special to the world.

We will help children develop their potential by believing in them and helping them believe in themselves.

Whether you are looking for a school that helps children achieve their potential, or one where preparation for secondary school is essential, come and see for yourself what makes us so special!

Call today and come and see us in action!

What's On!

Oh What A Night for a tribute act

THE prolific sounds of Frankie Valli and the Four Seasons can be heard at the Prince of Wales Centre in Cannock next weekend.

Let's hang On takes the audience on a musical journey, from where it all started to when Valli first joined the group in the early 50s,.

The show moves on to big hits such as December 1963 (Oh What A Night), Working My Way Back To You and Can't Take My Eyes Off You before a finale of red retro jackets and falsetto voices for legendary big tunes like Rag Doll, Big Girls Don't Cry, Walk Like A Man and Sherry.

It starts at 7.30pm on Saturday, June 15 with tickets £17 from the Church Street venue's box office on 01543 578762.

Bee Gees and Abba combine

TWO of the world's top tribute bands pay homage to Abba and the Bee Gees at the Prince of Wales Centre this month.

Bootleg Abba and Bee Gees Forever perform their Gimme! Gimme! Gimme! Night Fever show on Saturday, June 29 at the Church Street venue.

Billed as the ultimate not-to-be-missed family show, it starts at 7.30pm with ticket at £16 on 01543 578762.

Triple spirit as Phantoms pack in songs from shows

THREE Phantoms from Andrew Lloyd Webber's famous musical perform in this event where musical theatre meets the Rat Pack.

It stars Earl Carpenter, Matt Cammelle and Stephen John Davis, who have all played the formidable Phantom to critical acclaim as well as principal roles in some of the greatest musicals.

The trio are joined at Birmingham's Symphony Hall on Wednesday, June 12 by Rebecca Caine who won the role of Christine Daaé as part of the original cast of The Phantom of the Opera.

*This show filled with humour and heart-stirring performances features songs from West End musicals.

Hearts

Running at Wolverhampton's Grand Theatre until Saturday, June 16, is the smash-hit musical Ghost, based on the Oscar-winning movie that captured the hearts and imaginations of a generation back in the 90s.

And for opera fans there is a feast from the Welsh National Opera at Birmingham Hippodrome with Wagner Dream (June 12); Lohengrin (June 13/15) and Madam Butterfly (June 14)

Three Phantoms is in no way connected with and/or approved/endorsed by Really Useful Group or Andrew Lloyd Webber.*

It's Cooper play – just like that!

BEING Tommy Cooper is on a 39-date national tour stopping off at the New Alexandra Theatre, Birmingham next Wednesday, June 12.

The new play, by Tom Green, stars Damian Williams as Tommy Cooper and celebrates the brilliance of Britain's famous comic and explores the pressures and loneliness of fame.

After Tommy's television debut in 1948, he went on to star in many variety shows in a career that spanned four decades.

Tommy died in 1984, famously collapsing from a heart attack on stage on live television– in front of millions of viewers during his act on Live From Her Majesty's.

Marc Robinson as Buddy Holly

That'll be the day for nostalgia

HIT stage show Buddy Holly – a Legend Reborn is coming to Wolverhampton starring original rock'n'roll legend Jess Conrad.

Marc Robinson, a winner from ITV's legendary Stars in Their Eyes show, headlines the live production, bringing to life classic hits such as Peggy Sue, That'll be the Day, True Love Ways and Oh Boy.

Heyday

Backed by a band reminiscent of the Crickets in their 50s heyday the show is an authentic slice of rock 'n' roll nostalgia.

Joining Marc are veteran performer Jess Conrad, recreating the performances on 60s rock'n'roll show Oh Boy! and Patsy Lee, as Connie Francis with hits like Who's Sorry Now, Lipstick on Your Collar and Stupid Cupid.

The show is at the Grand Theatre on Sunday, June 16.

How sweet the sound of Motown

GO LOCO and get ready to dance All Night Long – the ultimate celebration of the sweet sound of Motown returns by popular demand to the Prince of Wales Centre.

Now in its 11th successive year, the live show, 'How Sweet It Is', delivers Motown's greatest hits from the likes of Smokey Robinson, The Isley Brothers, Stevie Wonder, Marvin Gaye, the Jacksons, Four Tops and Temptations.

It combines first class music and slick choreography, together with an amazing band performing top tunes.

Tickets are £20 for Saturday's show (June 8). They can be obtained from the Church Street theatre's box office on 01543 578762.

Entertainment at the Tackeroo

SOUL Junction provide the entertainment at the Tackeroo tomorrow night (Friday).

On Saturday (June 8), a Status Quo tribute performs at the venue in Bracken Close, Brindley Heath.

Admission for both gigs is £5 and they start at 9pm.

Tributes to The Who and Queen take place next weekend. Call 01543 423124 for more details.

Michael Obiora

Casualty
BBC1, 9.10pm

Cat McSweeney has had an allergic reaction to her fake tan, and is suffering from headaches, dizziness and nausea. While she undergoes treatment, it seems her fella could hold the key to her reaction. Meanwhile, Lloyd (Michael Obiora) is determined to uncover the truth about a cannabis factory on his final day as a nurse. Given the time of year there's little wonder this episode doesn't pack as much of a punch as the autumn instalments, but if Britain's Got Talent leaves you cold, then this alternative is just what the doctor ordered.

Iain Stewart

Rise of the Continents BBC2, 9pm

The BBC likes its history documentaries, but this new series goes back a wee bit further than most... It sees Scottish geologist and broadcaster Professor Iain Stewart examine the very beginnings of the land masses we know today as our continents. In this opening edition, Iain takes a look at Africa, and how it was formed from the wreckage of a long-lost supercontinent. He examines all the evidence which scientists used to piece the facts together, including the landmarks, mineral wealth and wildlife, which all provide clues as to the continent's formation.

Pick of the Week

Jenny hopes to make a good impression

Apart from an appointment with a doctor for 'personal problems,' the first date is pretty much as awkward as it gets. The nervous wait in the bar; the first impression; the nagging feeling that this date will end in disaster, humiliation or rejection.

Whatever your thoughts on the subject, it's a universal truth that first dates are rarely plain sailing. While some are notable only as the source of hilarious stories, they are always one thing – memorable.

This compatibility-defining ritual seems a perfect fit for TV, a point finally taken on-board by Channel 4, who have enlisted Bryan Elsley, the director behind E4's Skins, and an ensemble of fine actors to bring the cringe-inducing subject to life.

Part of the channel's Mating Season, the nine-part drama Dates takes a step into the social minefield – a place where confessions, lies, crises of confidence and sexual confusion come together with dramatic and hilarious effect. The key ingredient in the project is the acting talent, which includes Andrew Scott, who played Moriarty in BBC's Sherlock, Neil Maskell, who played a cold, measured killer in Channel 4's Utopia and Sheridan Smith, who is in pretty much everything.

Talking of awkward moments, Smith, who first made her presence known as Antony's girlfriend in The Royle Family over ten years ago, remembers one disastrous first date involving a drunken suitor who'd had one red cocktail too many: "He took me to the bus stop, and we got on the night bus, and there were no seats, so we were stood up, and as we're swaying about holding on to the bar, I could see him turning slightly green. And before I knew it, I had red sick all down my dress."

It's the stuff of nightmares, and the kind of story we've heard countless times from friends, but when it comes to her character Jenny, a lonely school teacher, does she have any more luck? "The first one is with Neil Maskell, who's an amazing actor… when I heard he was in it, I was thrilled. And he was so lovely. Not like his character, put it that way! And then in my other episode, it was with Andrew Scott, who's a friend of mine who I've worked with before. There's a lot of laughter in that episode, and thank goodness, because we literally could not stop laughing."

A mixed bag, then, which sums up her choice of roles in recent years. From comedic outings in Benidorm and Gavin and Stacey, to serious roles like that of Charmian Biggs, wife of train robber Ronnie, in the ITV drama Mrs Biggs – for which she won a Bafta – it seems she succeeds in everything she does. A point proven by the fact that Dustin Hoffman gave her a role in his film Quartet after being moved to tears by her performance on stage in Flare Path.

Buses and vomit aside, Smith is clear on how her perfect first date should go: "I'm animal-mad, so my ideal date would probably be something involving going to see animals. And it's always nice to be swept off your feet a little bit. But my big thing is, make me laugh."

Sheridan Smith stars in Dates, Tuesday, Channel 4, 10pm

Best of the Rest

MONDAY
EastEnders
BBC1, 8pm
A lot has changed since Peter was last in Walford – his stepmum Jane has left, his twin sister has a new face, and his childhood sweetheart Lauren Branning is now an alcoholic. But the development that's puzzling him the most is why Lucy is now running the café instead of Ian. His dad is forced to explain about his breakdown, but also implies that Lucy took advantage of his vulnerable state to launch a hostile takeover of the Beale empire. Naturally, Lucy is keen to defend herself, but instead of trying to get the prodigal Beale back on side, perhaps she'd be better off asking him what he's been up to for the last three years, and just why he's suddenly returned…

The Gadget Show
Channel 5, 8pm
This week's show features Rachel Riley's report on the revolution in TV tech. Suffering for her art again, Pollyanna Woodward has jetted off to California to test a submersible and a water-propelled stunt bike, while Jon Bentley gives us a demo of convertible laptops for the new Windows 8 operating system. He's assisted by Jonathan Slinger, Paralympic rower James Roe, artist Kyle Lambert and Britain's fastest touch-typist Bethan Davis. And if that's not enough to pique your interest, there's also Two Door Cinema Club passing judgement on assorted music-streaming sites. In fact the only thing missing is the marvellous Suzi Perry. Let's hope producers finally see sense and let her back into the fold.

TUESDAY
Gibraltar: Britain in the Sun
Channel 5, 8pm
Sitting in the mouth of the Mediterranean, the British Overseas Territory of Gibraltar has long held a far greater significance than its size would otherwise suggest. But what's life like for the people living on the two and a half-square-mile rock? This enjoyable documentary aims to find out, by following some of the 30,000 natives, ex-pats and tourists who make their home among the slopes, sunshine and Barbary macaques of the island. They include Dr Eric Shaw, who is in charge of looking after the monkeys, and police officer Dylan Quigley, who has a few complications with an arrest.

WEDNESDAY
All Star Mr & Mrs
ITV, 8pm
One of the delights of tuning into the show is finding out which selection of guests will be appearing – the juxtaposition of some of them is, at times, rather weird and wonderful. That's definitely the case this week, when Ricky Tomlinson, who's still best known for his role as Jim in The Royle Family, and his wife Rita feature alongside runner Paula Radcliffe and her husband, coach Gary Lough. Also appearing will be Strictly Come Dancing professionals Ola and James Jordan; seeing as they both work and live together, they must know each other rather well, or so you would think.

The Iraq War
BBC2, 9pm
The first two programmes in this fascinating series have looked back the conflict, but the final edition brings the story right up to date. Former foreign secretary Jack Straw reveals how he and US Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice made Iraq's Prime Minister Ibrahim Jaafaari step down, but the problem of finding somebody to replace him then reared its ugly head. Stephen Hadley, US National Security Advisor, explains that it was delegates from his country who suggested Nouri Maliki was an excellent choice – and sure enough, he took office in 2006. But it's the report on the levels of violence still prevalent in Iraq that send the most shivers down the spine.

Big Brother: Secrets & Lies Live Launch Part 1, Thursday, Channel 5, 9pm

THURSDAY
Big Brother: Secrets & Lies Live Launch Part 1, Channel 5, 9pm
Emma Willis has taken over as presenter of the returning reality show, which is hardly surprising considering she did such as good show of fronting the sister show, Big Brother's Bit on the Side. The fly-on-the-wall reality show is now on its 14th season, and the scary thing is many teenagers have never known a time without the Diary Room, Marcus Bentley's narration or the assorted wannabe celebs who started off as Guinea pigs and wound up using the show as a launch pad to kick start their own showbiz career. This time the Orwellian abode has had an eco-style makeover in line with this year's self-sufficiency theme.

FRIDAY
Harbour Lives
ITV, 8pm
Usually, when Ben Fogle turns up on our screens, it's because he's trekking up a mountain, rowing across the Atlantic or roughing it in a yurt in Alaska. So this new series, which finds him exploring Dorset, should feel like a real holiday – especially as he begins his journey in Sandbanks. As you'd expect, properties with such an exclusive address come with a hefty price tag attached, and estate agent Adrian Dunford reveals his company sold £50million-worth of bricks and mortar there last year alone. To see exactly what £5million will get you in Sandbanks, Ben takes a tour of one of the properties currently up for sale.

Big Brother's Bit on the Side
Channel 5, 10.30pm
If you fancy a successful career in showbusiness, you could do worse than front a Big Brother spin-off show. After all Dermot O'Leary, Russell Brand and Emma Willis have all earned their stripes reporting on latest developments in the Big Brother house. Bouncing from one reality show to the next is X Factor reject and Celebrity Big Brother winner Rylan Clark, who will be adding his pearls of wisdom to the proceedings.

Lunar's camper car is a new concept

The Lunar Vacanza camper car is the first of its kind on the UK market

LUNAR has announced its return to the motorhome market by launching a whole new vehicle concept.

The all-new and exciting Lunar Vacanza camper car is the first of its kind on the UK market and combines the dual benefits of a roomy, four-person camper with an efficient, easy to manoeuvre, everyday family car – the ideal solution for those who want the best of both.

No larger than most family cars – at 4.4m long and 2.011m wide (with mirrors) – the new Lunar Vacanza has a similar footprint to a VW Beetle and can be easily garaged.

Built to the high standards of quality, luxury and safety one would expect from Lunar, the Vacanza has European Whole Vehicle Type Approval, has been fully crash tested, includes four belted seats and offers luxuries such as a reversing camera and air conditioning, making it a pleasure to drive.

Family

Based on the award-winning Nissan NV200 Combi, the Vacanza offers a host of features that will appeal similarly to both a young family and the seasoned camper van enthusiast.

ith class leading 135g/km CO2 emissions and 50-plus MPG, the Vacanza is one of the most economical and environmentally-friendly vehicles in the marketplace and road tax is just £120 a year.

The Vacanza offers supreme versatility. In the city, it's easy to park and provides plenty of room for shopping. Drive it to the countryside and the Vacanza affords comfortable living space suitable for a family thanks to the exclusive rotating front seats and well equipped kitchen with grill, fridge and three-burner hob.

To ensure a comfortable night's sleep for both adults and children, there is also an innovative, easy to store, double bed system plus fold-out beds inside the roof.

A bespoke tailgate awning will shortly be available that allows the Vacanza to dock at a site. This means that kit can be unloaded at the pitch, and frees up the Vacanza for everyday travel to and from the site.

Growing

Brian Mellor, chairman and CEO of Lunar, said: "It has been four years since we last launched a new model into the motorhome market and we are very excited to be returning with our brand new Vacanza camper car – a concept designed in response to the growing trend and a move towards more economical and smaller leisure vehicles.

"The Vacanza is not just a new vehicle; it is a whole new category.

"Our new model encompasses all the qualities you would expect from a Lunar product and has been designed as a multi-purpose leisure vehicle which is compact, economical and fuel efficient so can genuinely be used as both an everyday car as well as a holiday getaway.

"We are extremely excited about launching this product into a segment of the motorhome market that is continuing to grow significantly.

"Complementing our existing caravan range, we are confident we have a unique proposition and that the Vacanza represents a great opportunity for 2013," Brian added.

The environmentally-friendly Vacanza is based on the Nissan NV200 Combi

Lamborghinis are the superstars of this Italian party

Crowds applaud at the final leg of the Grande Giro Lamborghini 50th Anniversary tour in Bologna

By Matt Kimberley

AN average British tourist wandering through Bologna last month might have wondered what all the fuss – and noise – was about.

If they'd have timed it just right, say about 3pm, they'd have witnessed dozens of Lamborghinis tearing through the city streets under police escort, with thousands of Lamborghini fans standing street-side with flags, banners and cameras.

This was the scene as the final leg of the Grande Giro Lamborghini 50th Anniversary tour got under way. And our average British tourist probably wouldn't have been interested past the novelty of seeing so many loud, (occasionally) obnoxious sports cars in one place.

And yet, as I observed from the driver's seat of a Gallardo Spyder LP 570-4 Performante, the Italians were going crazy for the show being staged for them.

There was a depth of passion and joy that you just-wouldn't see in the UK. Frankly, it was brilliant.

Flags

As part of a convoy, I snaked my way out of the city and across an expanse of countryside, guiding the Performante through a few overtakes as the angry bark of the V10 behind me left car after car in its wake.

One thing was constant though, and that was the crowd.

Fans were everywhere, tripods at the ready, arms waving and grins spreading wide as the other drivers and I tore past.

I don't know of any British event quite like the Grande Giro. Of all the enthusiasts at a UK car show, how many would bother to stand out on the street waving flags and taking pictures if a few dozen Aston Martins were to go past?

How many would even know it was an Aston Martin anniversary in the first place? Precious few, no doubt.

There is, and has been for some time in Britain, an air of distaste around supercars and it's totally unfair.

Reaction

I was recently driving a Ferrari 458 Spider just outside Bristol, minding my own business, overtaking an old Nissan Primera, when the bearded man inside made an offensive hand gesture out of his window, for no reason whatsoever.

I wasn't speeding, tailgating or anything else that might have provoked such a reaction.

In Italy, drive an Italian supercar and people actively let you into gaps. People honk their horns in praise and flash the thumbs-up.

The rumour mill says that even the police treat you with more restraint if you're in something like a Lamborghini.

You wouldn't play a fine piano concerto in a monkey enclosure at the zoo because they wouldn't appreciate it. For bellowing out the Lamborghini symphony, there's simply nowhere better than Italy.

Renault unveils a stunner, but it's only a concept car

The Renault TwinRun looks stunning but the French car firm says sadly it will remain as just a concept

RENAULT has stunned the industry with a 316bhp V6-engined city car concept.

The Twin'Run concept, which wears a special one-off glass-polyester composite Twingo-esque bodyshell over a tubular steel racing chassis, is powered by a mid-rear-mounted 3.5-litre V6 taken from a Megane Trophy racing car.

The car led a three-car procession around the Monaco Grand Prix circuit, heading a Clio V6 driven by French Formula 1 driver Charles Pic, and a classic Maxi 5 Turbo driven by former rally champion Jean Ragnotti.

Thanks to a six-speed sequential gearbox, a weight of just 950kg and a phenomenal power-to-weight ratio of 333bhp per tonne, the rear-wheel drive Twin'Run sprints from 0-62mph in 4.5 seconds and is limited to a 155mph top speed.

The Twin'Run doesn't just have huge power and performance.

Tuning

"A limited-slip differential ensures maximum traction when exiting corners, while a 57 per cent rearward weight balance is typical of mid-engined cars and should help guarantee driveability.

Ragnotti was involved in the final tuning of the chassis system of theTwin'Run.He shared his impressions while taking a look back at the R5.

"Following this first drive, I'd say that this is a sound car with a strong pedigree. It's easy to control.

"You can feel straight away that it's a sports car. In terms of balance and ride, it brings the R5 Turbo to mind to some extent," he says.

Despite vocal approval from fans of the Clio V6, Renault will not build a production version of the Twin'Run. Instead, the company says the concept's true purpose is to hint at the styling of its replacement for the Twingo.

Vauxhall to introduce new range of hi-tech engines

VAUXHALL has given a sneak preview of the first of a range of engines due to arrive by 2016 at the latest.

As well as the engines, there are new gearboxes, both manual and automated manual type, aimed at improving shift accuracy, smoothness and feel.

The first to arrive is a new breed of turbocharged petrol in 1.6-litre guise, dubbed SIDI to signify Spark Ignition Direct Injection.

With 13 per cent lower fuel consumption and emissions than its predecessor, the engine ticks the eco boxes, but power and torque have been boosted by up to 30 per cent so that the unit can replace older, less efficient 2.0-litre ones across several model lines.

Testing

Vauxhall had installed a production-ready 197bhp version into an Astra, for use around the company's testing facility at Dudenhofen, Germany.

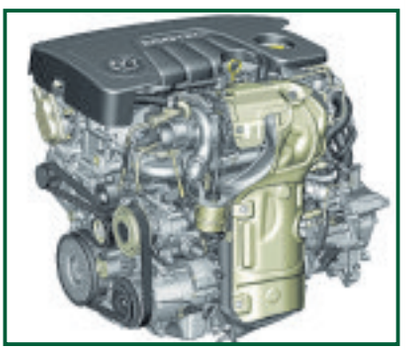
It's immediately smooth and quiet under normal use, with improvements to the gearbox also obvious straight away.

The turbo's extra thrust arrives smoothly after 1,500rpm, making it very flexible around town.

And then there's the new gearbox which is now happier to block-shift smoothly, while each ratio locates easily with just the right amount of initial resistance.

The engine pulls harder above 3,000rpm until acceleration starts to fall away by 5,000rpm, making it a low-revving unit by petrol standards.

Ultimately, that should help reduce engine wear many years down the line.Vauxhall's engineers have confirmed that the SIDI 1.6 will be built with a variety of power outputs and should find applications across every range from the Corsa to the Insignia and Zafira. Only the diminutive Adam will definitely not see it. With ongoing improvements on the cards, the new engine is leading the way for its successors and stablemates to follow.



Vauxhall's new high-tech and efficient diesels will be introduced across the range of models starting in 2016

Staffordshire County Council

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION ACT 1984 (AS AMENDED)
ROAD TRAFFIC (TEMPORARY RESTRICTIONS) ACT 1991
POWER STATION ROAD AND LEATHERMILL LANE, RUGELEY
DIVERSION OF VEHICULAR TRAFFIC

NOTICE is hereby given that the Staffordshire County Council, on 04 June 2013, made an Order the effect of which is to prohibit any vehicle from proceeding in the following lengths of roads:

(a) Power Station Road, Rugeley - from its junction with Leathermill Lane for a distance of approximately 50 metres in a southerly direction;

(b) Leathermill Lane, Rugeley - at its junction with Power Station Road for a distance of approximately 70 metres in a westerly direction;

unless the vehicle is being used in connection with the works. Access will be available up to either side of the Power Station Road closure, but through access will not be permitted. The works will be phased so that an emergency access route is available, though the A51 Rugeley Bypass would be the preferred route. Pedestrian access will be maintained.

The works will take place as follows:

(a) Power Station Road, Rugeley – 11 June 2013 until 22 July 2013

(b) Leathermill Lane, Rugeley – 08 July until 22 July 2013

The preferred alternative route for traffic during the Power Station Road closure will be available via Power Station Road, A51 Rugeley Eastern Bypass, B5013 Station Road, Power Station Road and vice versa.

THE ORDER WILL COME INTO OPERATION ON 11 JUNE 2013, AND THE SAID WORKS WILL COMMENCE ON OR AS NEAR AS PRACTICABLE TO THAT DATE. IT IS ANTICIPATED THAT THE WORKS WILL BE COMPLETED BY 22 JULY 2013.

The Order will remain in force for a period of 18 months or until the drainage works, which it is proposed to carry out on or near the road, have been completed, whichever is the earlier.

GERMANY HAS THE ANSWER TO YOUR HEATING PROBLEMS

In Germany, Austria, Poland, Russia, Eastern Europe and even America more and more people are choosing to heat their homes and offices with a very special form of electric heating in preference to gas, oil, LPG or any other form of conventional central heating or Economy 7.

Here in the UK, more and more of our customers are making the same decision! When you see this incredible heating for yourself, you could be next! All you need is standard electricity supply and NO special tariff like Economy 7. The heating looks just like a conventional radiator, but STOP! It is very, very different! Why? Put simply, central heating isn't the only choice anymore! Now you can choose to heat your homes, offices, extensions, conservatories with this incredible German heating which provides individual control over every single room without the need for a central control or space to site a boiler. Now the boiler space can become a valuable storage area! Installation takes minutes and running is completely clean, no danger of leakage, no holes through walls, no floorboards up and no tradesmen trundling around the house wielding pipe cutters, spanners, hammers, wrenches and work boots. This incredible German heating simply plugs in and that's it. Job Done! You can even do just one room or the whole house! Get your free info pack right away by calling 01889 576732.

This heating is NEW in the UK, yet in Germany, Austria, Poland, Russia and even America it has been a mainstream form of heating for a very long time.

Discover for yourself this incredible German heating, get your FREE info pack right away by calling Simple Heating Solutions on Rugeley 01889 576732, ask for Martin.

Rugeley leave it late but claim win

Bloxwich 154, Rugeley 155-9. Rugeley won by one wicket

RUGELEY took a dramatic last-gasp victory at Bloxwich.

Two runs were needed from the final over with the last-wicket pair at the crease when Ross Matthews clipped away a leg-side delivery to clinch the points.

It was Rugeley's third consecutive win in Staffs Clubs Division One.

The visitors, having put Bloxwich in, found the going tough as the home side moved on smoothly until the halfway drinks break.

But the interval seemed to hit Bloxwich's momentum as impressive bowling from Kieran Smith (4-26) and Ryan Williams (1-12) saw the hosts bowled out in the last over for 154.

Rugeley made a bright start in reply, but wickets began to fall and a collapse looked imminent until a vital stand between Matthew Jenkinson (32) and Sam Lefeaver (21) gave them a chance of victory.

Both eventually fell but that set the stage for Matthews.

Captain Stuart Talbot said: "This is our third victory in a row now and it's clear that confidence is up around the team.

"It is encouraging for me to see such determination."

Streetly's success is ended

MILFORD HALL put an end to Streetly's 100 per cent Birmingham and District record with a narrow victory.

The Division Three leaders went down by eight runs on Saturday after being dismissed for 169.

In the Premier Division, Walsall beat Himley by 17 runs with Paul Wicker's 55 not out helping them to 187 before they bowled out the visitors for 170.

Wolverhampton drew with Berkswell as Tom Fell's 117 guided Wolves to 224-5 before Andy Bowyer took 7-50 as Berkswell made 180-9.

In Division One Brewood beat leaders Dorridge by 35 runs despite only making 149-9 with Cameron Fox hitting 44. But 4-42 from Iftikhar Ahmed saw Dorridge dismissed for 114.

Ring novices are getting set to collar their opponents

Boxing

TWO novice Cannock boxers are set to make their ring debut in a white collar event.

Heavyweight Ashley Justice and middle-weight Tom Molesdale will be on the bill at Lichfield Rugby Club on Friday, June 14.

The card also features fighters from Lichfield, Dudley, Stourbridge and Derby.

White collar boxing is open to novices with little or no experience who want to test their skills.

They normally have up to four months in which to train and prepare.

The show will be staged in a marquee at the rugby club and will feature a disco, pig roast, barbecue and bar.

Master of ceremonies will be Sky Sports' Mike Goodall and a raffle will support charities including Help for Heroes.

The organisers have staged three similar shows at Cannock's Bar Sport.

Ticket details from Craig Tipton on 07890 617402 or Rob Gardner on 07860 927195.

A limited number of tickets will be available on the night.

Holmes, Watson solve the problem

Aston Manor 136, Penkridge 137-2. Penkridge won by eight wickets

PENKRIDGE continued their good start to the Birmingham and District Division Three season with a comprehensive win at home to Aston Manor.

Despite a change in format from 50 overs win or lose to the more traditional 55-over win, lose or draw model, Penkridge were comfortable winners.

After winning the toss and electing to field, Penkridge made a good start with Laeq Chisthi making an early breakthrough.

Aston then cautiously rebuilt there innings until Chisthi (5-61) and Shafiq Ahmed (3-30) ripped through their batting order to dismiss them for 136 in the 42nd over.

Penkridge were never in trouble with their reply, Alex Watson (64) and Ben Holmes (43) putting on a splendid century opening stand.

The win leaves Penkridge second in the table, one point behind Streetly – this weekend's opponents.

Aston 212-6, Penkridge 213-2. Penkridge won by eight wickets

A weakened Penkridge seconds returned to winning ways at Aston Manor.

After losing the toss, the Penkridge bowlers applied themselves well to hold Manor to 212-6 off their 50 overs.

Gary Pope (2-56), youngster Oliver Deakin (2-48) and Chris Henderson (1-21) were the pick of the bowlers.

Penkridge made light work of their reply as a superb second-wicket partnership between Chad Clarke (94) and Ian Brown (74 not out) saw them home with five overs to spare.

Penkridge 115, Armitage 118-4. Armitage won by six wickets

Penkridge thirds crashed to defeat when they travelled to Armitage firsts.

After losing the toss and being put into bat, Penkridge were soon in trouble.

With only Mo Hassane (30) and KK Sadiq (24) registering significant scores, they were dismissed for just 115 as Lee Spencer claimed 4-32.

In reply, Armitage stuttered slightly in losing three quick wickets.

But some hard hitting led them to a comfortable six-wicket victory as David Dix made 46.

Faisal Nadeem took 2-13 for Penkridge.

Cannock crumble then bounce back to victory

Kings Heath 169, Cannock 63. Kings Heath won by 106 runs

CANNOCK firsts fell away from a strong position to take a heavy away defeat in Birmingham and District Division Three.

Promoted Kings Heath batted aggressively but lost wickets to be 124-7 with the visitors looking well-placed.

Jack Twigger (4-35) bowled positively and with accuracy, backed by Maurice Holmes (3-44). But the Kings Heath tail wagged and they reached 169 at the fall of the last wicket.

Cricket

In reply, Cannock lost both opening batsmen for 21 runs and failed to recover with only Richie Hewitt (15) and Andy Hawkins (18) providing much resistance.

They were all out for 63 as Stephen Hunt (4-20) and Christopher Monk (4-24) ran through them.

Cannock 145-4, Penn 132-9. Cannock won by 13 runs

Cannock bounced back from Saturday's loss to defeat Penn in round one of the league's T20 competition.

Cannock's openers Richie Hewitt (31) and Tegan Naidoo (59) scored 91 in 12 overs and Andy Le Feaver's brisk 18 not out saw the home team reach 145-4. Penn were 71-1 after 10 overs but excellent fielding brought four run-outs and despite skipper Dan Bassett's 33, Cannock won.

Stourbridge 187, Cannock 188-7. Cannock won by three wickets

Cannock seconds continued their 100 per cent winning start to the season.

Visitors Stourbridge won the toss and posted 187 all out, thanks mainly to Alex Spence's 102 with Dan Wood taking 4-17 and Jamie Probert 2 -58. Cannock's reply started at a pace with opener Mike Stevenson scoring freely to make 63.

Dan Wood (56) and Connor Shingler (33) bought the total closer but a mini-collapse saw seven wickets down before John Cooke (eight not out) and Jamie Probert (two not out) took Cannock home with five balls to spare.

Cannock 219-8, Hammerwich 135. Cannock won by 84 runs

Cannock thirds extended their lead in the division.

Despite the loss of Ian Slym to the third ball of the innings, the hosts were soon piling on the runs thanks to a superb 89 by Nic Bandurak, backed by Craig Squire (24), Tom Bull (31) and Alex Beamon (20). They finished on 219-8.

A first ball wicket in the reply put Cannock in control before a dangerous partnership between Sam Harbage (19) and Harry Walker (49) gave Hammerwich hope.

But wickets for Bull and Beamon ended the charge. Ant Wood (3-42) wrapped up the innings.

Batsmen set up Hawkins but win eludes them

HAWKINS SPORTS continue to set the pace in the Staffs Clubs Premier, though they had to settle for a winning draw at home to Pelsall.

The leaders made 246 batting first, thanks in a large part to Aqsad Ali's 89 and a quickfire 82 off 89 balls from Zaheer Suliman.

Pelsall's Jamie Holmes took 4-50 as the visitors restricted the home side's explosive batting line-up.

In reply, Pelsall were boosted by Richard Marsh's 66, coupled with a rapid 43 from Simon Stevens. But they were forced to hang on, finishing on 229-9, with Ali returning figures of 3-46.

Hawkins skipper Mubeen Rashid said: "It was a really entertaining game and a positive result against one of our main rivals.

"Our innings owed pretty much everything to Aqsad and Zaheer who helped us recover from a sticky start.

"Their innings followed a similar pattern and they were well set with 10 overs to go, but we nearly nicked the win."

Cannock and Rugeley survived a late flurry of wickets to hold on for a losing draw at Beacon.

Chris Townsend struck an unbeaten 121 and James Baikoff 105 for the hosts who declared on 263-4. But C&R proved stubborn opponents with the bat, Ryan Ponder making the most of three dropped chances to anchor the reply with an unbeaten 72. Wickets fell late on, but they closed on 148-8.

Teenager Todd Allen smashed 41 off just 18 balls as Hammerwich claimed a thrilling three-wicket home win over Whittington. The visitors had looked set for victory following Dan Kirk's fine 114 in their total of 251-5.

But 17-year-old Allen took matters into his own hands to clinch the win with a ball to spare with a vital 28 not out by Thomas Fellows.

Aqsad Ali drives through the covers on his way to a valuable 89 for Hawkins Sports

Tai ready to defy op in his title challenge

TAI WOFFINDEN has gone under the knife in a bid to sustain his world speedway title challenge.

The Wolves star crashed out of the British Grand Prix at Cardiff's Millennium Stadium on Saturday night, shattering his collarbone.

Two days later, the 22-year-old underwent surgery – and the day after that had his back tattooed with a picture of his late father, Rob.

Woffinden has declared his determination to be at the tapes in the next world championship round, a week on Saturday.

The Briton still lies second in the title charge, but now trails Russian ace Emil Sayfutdinov, who went on to win at Cardiff, by eight points.

His form means Woffinden can ill-afford to miss the Polish GP at Gorzow on Saturday, June 15 if at all possible.

But his injury also knocks the Parrys International Wolves' hopes in the Elite League. They already have Ty Proctor on the sidelines, but once the Australian returns Wolves would be unable to use a guest for Woffinden, who has been eased out of the No.1 race-jacket by Freddie Lindgren.

Fortunately for Wolves, their rescheduled match at Peterborough on Monday was called off.

The Panthers had been asked to accept a change of race night for television coverage, and agreed provided they were allowed to cover for Kenneth Bjerre, already booked to ride abroad. But once a decision was made that it would be against the rules, the date was scrapped.

Wolves are at Eastbourne on Saturday and host Lakeside on Monday.

British lightweight champion Martin Gethin with members of Great Wyrley ABC

Champion to be guest

Boxing

BRITISH champion Martin Gethin is the special guest on Sunday when Great Wyrley ABC hold a charity exhibition show.

The British lightweight kingpin will present the trophies. Coach Pete Hickenbottom said. "It's a celebration of the very good season we've had over the past 10 months.

"Twenty-three times our boxers represented the club in venues up and down the country and we came back with a record of 18 wins with just five defeats. Nearly all the squad have winning records and four of them have gone undefeated this season.

"So we want to show the people of Great Wyrley what the club is all about and what we do in the gym and the ring. That's what the idea of the exhibition day is all about.

"It also gets the community as a whole together for an afternoon, which is rare in Wyrley nowadays. To say assistant coach Andy Peach and I are pleased with the way it's gone this season is an understatement."

Gethin, beaten at the weekend in a final eliminator for the IBF world lightweight title, met Great Wyrley boxers at his sparring session in the Saddlers Centre, Walsall.

Also appearing on the card will be members of the club's juniors and ladies section – and sponsor Chris Evans, of James Evans Financial Services, will also be boxing. Doors open at noon and tickets costs £7 (under-10s £3.50). Contact Hickenbottom on 07957 601424.

Goal-king Todd gets contract with Villa

A BUDDING football star from Heath Hayes has been awarded a contract with his favourite team Aston Villa – after scoring almost 80 goals last season.

Eight-year-old Todd Alcock has been signed up by the Premier League team for the under-nines side.

The midfielder from Heath Hayes has been playing for Cannock Town and impressed Villa scouts.

The Five Ways School pupil had represented Villa while playing for his Cannock team, but is now old enough to sign a contract.

It means he must leave his local side but at a presentation ceremony he was given a farewell present of a framed Cannock shirt, picture of the team and an armband.

Alcock, who has also been watched by Wolves, first started playing football at the age of four.

His talent was discovered after he went to see his brother Ross, who is now 11, train at Cannock Leisure Centre.

His skills were noticed at a training session.

Alcock is now looking to follow in the footsteps of his Villa idol Gabby Agbonlahor.

He said: "I feel really chuffed and proud. It is going to be exciting. My favourite player is Gabby Agbonlahor; I like how he scores the goals and the skills he has got."

The Alcock family are no strangers to high-level sport – dad Wayne, 42, is a professional golfer.

"I am really proud of him," he said. "It means the world and being a Villa fan as well."

Attacking football the way forward – Jackett

NEW Wolves head coach Kenny Jackett stepped into the job and immediately vowed to win over the fans with attacking football.

The 51-year-old was unveiled at Compton as the club's first head coach on a 12-month rolling contract to succeed the sacked Dean Saunders.

Jackett gained just five per cent of 9,000 votes cast in a poll conducted by the Chronicle's sister paper, the Express & Star, which was topped by Owen Coyle on 45 per cent.

by Tim Nash

The former Swansea and Millwall boss, who has no immediate plans to bring in any backroom staff, accepts he has a battle to win over the Molineux masses after emerging top of a pile of 75 applicants for the job.

"Yes, but it's a challenge I embrace," said Jackett.

"I recognise I do have a battle to win over the fans. It's something I will be working hard on.

"It's the players' responsibility to put on a good performance and they lead the crowd."

Emulate

The new head coach believes an adapted version of wingers and plenty of crosses into the box – similar to Mick McCarthy's 2009 Championship winners – is the key to a successful Wolves, who will again embrace the 'young and hungry' policy brought in by their former boss.

Wolves, 4-1 bookies' favourites to win League One, topped the third tier in 1924 and 1989, two of their three seasons spent at that level.

And Jackett admitted they have to look to emulate their predecessors on a wave of attacking football.

"We can't sit back," said Jackett. "We have to attack, we have to take the game to the opposition – particularly at home, we have to use the full width of the pitch.

"That's a big thing for the supporters to see us getting wide, getting round the back within a sensible, functional set-up.

"We have to play expansive, attacking football to get out of the league.

"Distribution from the back four is very important but getting the ball wide and to get round the back of people is key to scoring goals.

"You can't be passing the ball inside your own half for long periods without getting a cross or a shot in.

"So, a passing game? Yes. But it has to be a high-tempo and attacking one."

■ Midfielder Jamie O'Hara has hinted at leaving Wolves, saying: "I've played in the Premier League for five years, so I think I've got the ability to play there."

Gethin's hopes for tilt at world title counted out

It's all over – referee Howard Foster counts out Martin Gethin at Walsall Town Hall

WALSALL'S Martin Gethin saw his IBF world lightweight title dream turn into a nightmare after a final eliminator stoppage defeat to Ammeth Diaz, writes Craig Birch.

The British champion was dropped three times at Walsall Town Hall by the Panamanian puncher, who has already been in for the big belt, before he was counted out in the seventh round.

A cagey first round opened proceedings, but Gethin opened his account for the evening by firing a left uppercut into the target as a pumped-up Diaz ploughed forward.

The away fighter stayed on his toes and slipped away from Gethin's attacks in the second, on route to possibly nudging ahead on the judges' scorecards for the first time.

Gethin probably won his only round of the seven in the third, firing hooks with both hands that Diaz gamely answered and kept on coming. It all started to go horribly wrong in the sixth, when a booming right hook from Diaz dropped Gethin – who had never been near the canvas as an amateur, pro, or even in the gym – to his knee.

Gethin gamely answered back and both let fly but he came worse off in a coming together and was back on his knee from a left hook, but he was saved by the bell.

There was no escape when Diaz loaded up behind a left hook that put Gethin on his knee for a third and final time, as referee Howard Foster counted him out with seven seconds of the round left.

Walsall's Christopher Keane saw his unbeaten record go up in smoke in the main supporting bout.

Supporters had hoped he could wrest Neil Dawson's WBO inter-continental cruiserweight title from him. But Keane succumbed to a devastating counter-punch in the second round.

Double driving wins for Adam

A STAFFORDSHIRE racing driver is celebrating back to back wins at two of the sport's iconic venues.

Lichfield-born Adam Christodoulou took GT4 victories in his BMW at the Nurburgring 24-hour race in Germany and the British GT at Silverstone at the wheel of a Porsche.

Christodoulou and teammates Andreas Montman (Germany), Jens Moetefindt (Germany) and Kiki Sak Nana (Thailand) finished third in Germany only for the two cars ahead of them to be disqualified.

Then it was back to Britain and a win with teammate Joerg Viebahn

Rugeley are ready for more sevens

RUGBY teams from across Staffordshire are heading to Rugeley Rugby Club on Saturday for their annual sevens competition.

It was launched in 2010 and is sponsored for a second successive year by Ansons Solicitors of Cannock.

St Augustine's Field will be the venue for the Ansons LLP Sevens. Teams taking part include Burntwood, Wheaton Ashton, Eccleshall, Barton under Needwood, Whittington and Stafford.

Defending champions Cannock are looking for a third successive victory.

The tournament's success has led to the creation of the Staffordshire Sevens series, with events in Cannock, Wednesbury and Trentham.

Rugeley chairman Carl Johnson said: "I am delighted with Ansons Solicitors' continued support for our club. Entrance is free and refreshments will be available to make it a fun day out for all."

Beaman buzzing with his first ton

A MAIDEN hundred by Alex Beaman helped Cannock Colts to a big win over Fordhouses. He hit 118 as the under-15s side overcame the loss of early wickets to make 201 all out.

He cut loose to put on 67 for the final wicket off just five overs with Ollie Cleland (three). Beaman finally fell to Gurdeep Singh, who took 3-7 in two and a half overs.

In reply, Cannock's opening bowlers Jacob Newport (2-6) and Alex Rowe (1-8) applied immediate pressure and Fordhouses lost wickets as they tried to increase the run rate.

Ashley Daniels took a fine catch at point off Newport and, despite 17 from Luvpreet Singh and 13 by Tanveer R handawa, Fordhouses were all out for 73 as James Bowden claimed 3-20.

Club get Queen's seal of approval

WYRLEY JUNIORS FC have picked up two major awards.

For the fifth time in 10 years, they were chosen by the Staffordshire FA as the FA Charter Standard Community Club of the Year 2013.

Wyrley then topped that by being awarded the Queen's Award for Voluntary Services.

They have more than 40 teams and 500 players and are close to completing a development of four new pitches at their £1.15m base in Long Lane, Essington.

The Queen's Award is a tremendous accolade for the club's 100-plus volunteers.

SMITH SAYS YES TO NEW PITMEN DEAL

HEDNESFORD TOWN boss Rob Smith has signed a new two-year contract to stay at Keys Park until 2015.

Smith took the Pitmen back into Conference North for the first time since 2006.

His side won an unprecedented treble – they took victory in the Evo-Stik Northern Premier play-off final and also lifted the Staffordshire and Birmingham Senior Cups. And Smith is delighted to be staying in the Pitmen's ranks.

He cited the attitude of both his squad and the supporters as major factors.

"This squad have been a joy to work with and I was very keen to continue in the development of my team at what is a very appealing standard of football," he said.

"I am also very content at the club; everyone has been great to me ever since I joined. The people at the club and the supporters are superb."

Easy

Further good news for Smith is that his previous assistant Larry Chambers will return after taking a year out of the game.

Fan favourite Chris Brindley, who deputised for Chambers last season, is being retained as part of the club's coaching staff.

"The decision to bring Larry back into the fold was an easy one," added Smith.

"He has been my right hand man for 12 years and instrumental in many of the current signings.

"Chris was a great help to me last year and very popular with the players.

"So having them both on board, as well as Steve Wynn, will mean we have a very strong and experienced management team going into the new season."

Smith was cautious on his side's prospects in a division which will see his men take on the likes of Telford and Stockport County.

"The players will have a chance to prove themselves," he said. "I hope and expect them to step up."

Kenny Jackett at Compton

It's Jackett for Wolves

FORMER Swansea and Millwall boss Kenny Jackett is the new Wolves head coach.

And Jackett, 51, immediately pledged to win over any doubting Molineux fans with a commitment to attacking football.

"We can't sit back," he said. "We have to attack, we have to take the game to the opposition."
